Port Adelaide river—Alterations in beacons consequent on Light's Passage harbour works.

WITH reference to Notices to Mariners No. 204, dated 15th June, and No. 289, dated 29th August 1903, issued by this Office, the British Admiralty has given further notice that the following alterations which have been found necessary will be made on or about the 30th August next:—

The Beacons forming No. 1 Lead will be removed altogether.

In lieu thereof two Beacons showing Green Lights will be placed on the North Bank—one near the present Reflecting Beacon and the other opposite the present No. 1 White Light, as shown on plan which may be obtained at these offices.

Two Light Beacons (both red) will be placed on the North Bank, which, when in line, will lead through the Cutting to the Bend, and will be hereafter termed No. 1 Lead.

Sailing Directions.—To enter the River pass the Occulting Light Buoy at a distance of about 50 feet, and steer between the White Light on a Pile abreast the old Light-house and the first Green Light, which is placed between the Reflecting Beacon and the Cutting on a N.E. by E. course, passing the second Green Light at a similar distance until the New Lead on the North Bank (now termed No. 1 Lead) comes in line. Keep them in line until abreast of No. 2, then steer for No. 3 as before.

This affects Admiralty Chart No. 1750.

P.S.—Owing to the nature of the work in progress this notice may require to be amended from time to time, and therefore should be treated as tentative only.

During the progress of the work at the Light's Passage Harbour, Masters exempt from pilotage may, if they so desire, avail themselves of the services of a pilot to assist them in passing the works, either in or out, at one-half of the usual pilotage rates.

If the usual exemption flag is not hoisted, it will be taken as a signal that a pilot is required. At night, if a pilot is wanted, the usual signal for a pilot should be shown.

Navoska rock—Non-existence of.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 664 of 1903) that as the results of numerous searches for the Naboska rock to the southward of Quelpart island show no indication of its existence, it has been expunged from the charts.

This rock, on which the Russian transport Naboska was reported to have been lost in April 1870, was unsuccessfully searched for by H. M. surveying vessel Sylvia in 1877, when a sounding of 67 fathoms, mud bottom, was the least water obtained anywhere within two miles of the reported position.

Mr. G. C. Anderson, Master of the ship Conquest, reports having frequently passed in 1875 and 1876, within two miles of the supposed position of this rock, without seeing any indication of shoal water.

A thorough search was also made in 1885 by Captain Phythian, U.S.S. Trenton, and latterly in February 1903 Captain A. A. Dalweritz, of the American schooner Forester, reports having passed close to the assigned position of this rock, obtaining at the same time a sounding of 55 fathoms, mud bottom, without seeing any sign of shoal water.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1903.

THE following note is published for general information.

A. EARLE,

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 24th September 1903.

DEPARTMENT OF LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1903.

Explanatory.—The chief bhadoi food-crops of the Province are—bhadoi paddy, Indian-corn, jowar or the large millet, bajra or the spiked millet, and the various small millets—marua, kodo, cheena, shyalnaja, shama, bhura, gondli, laio, serua, and sira. The spiked millet and the smaller millets, though yielding small crops of inferior grains, are useful as drought-resisting crops. Bhadoi paddy, Indian-corn, and jowar also do not need very heavy rainfall for their sustenance. The chief bhadoi non-food-crops of the Province are—jute, indigo, and cotton, for which separate forecasts are published. Bhadoi til is included in the oil-seed forecast. Bhadoi paddy, Indian-corn, and the millets make up more than four-fifths of the total area under all the bhadoi food-crops. The bhadoi pulses are barbati or ghangra, bhadoi kalai, and mung, and mothi or bhringi. Bhadoi paddy is chiefly grown in Bengal and Orissa, and occupies 60 per cent. of the total bhadoi food-crop area. Maize and millets predominate in Bihar and occupy 26 per cent. of this area.

2. Character of the season.— In March there were fairly good showers throughout Bengal, but Bihar and Chota Nagpur had little rainfall at this time. The fall in April and May was in defect everywhere except in Chota Nagpur, and the deficiency continued through June all over the Province, except in North Bengal, the North Gangetic districts of Bihar, in some parts of the Presidency Division, and in Dacca, Mymensingh, Tippera, and Noakhali in East Bengal. The rainfall in July also partook of the character of local showers. It was seriously defective in Birbhum, Murshidabad, in all the districts of the Patna Division, in Hazaribagh, Manbhum, and Palamau. During August the deficiency continued, but North Bengal, East Bengal (except Backergunge and Noakhali), and the districts of Birbhum, Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Bhagalpur, and Mónghyr received rainfall above the normal. Sowings were delayed, and the early-sown crops suffered or were lost completely owing to the defect of rainfall at the early part of the season.

Character of the crop.—From the summary of the district returns appended to this forecast, it will be seen that out of 45 districts in the Province, four, viz., Dacca, Tippera, Darjeeling, and Balasore, report a crop of 100 per cent. or over. In six, viz., in the 24 Parganas, Rangpur, Darbhanga, Cuttack, Angul, and Manbhum, the outturn is expected to vary between 100 and 90 per cent., and in ten others between 80 and 79. Eight districts anticipate a 70—60 per cent. crop, and three, viz., Murshidabad, Monghyr, and Bhagalpur, a 60—50 per cent. crop. Patna returns a 50—40 per cent. crop, and Shahabad only a 40—30 per cent. crop. According to the district returns the outturn of the whole Province will amount to 75 per cent. I am inclined to think that, as in Patna, cultivators have gone on sowing maize, also kodo and lair (the late and superior variety of gondli), in Chota Nagpur and in Bihar to a very late period, and that rainfall in August and September having been particularly favourable for the growth of this and other bhadoi crops, the actual outturn will be very much better than the present estimate. At present, however, I consider it quite safe to estimate the crop over the whole Province to be an 80 per cent. crop.

SENIORITY OF COMMISSIONED MEDICAL OFFICERS IN CIVIL EMPL

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—MEDICAL.

Darjeeling, the 2nd October 1903.

RESOLUTION—No. 2671T.—M.

READ the following letter, No. 256, dated Calcutta, the 29th March 1897, from the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of the Punjab:—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 79, dated the 25th January 1897, enquiring, with reference to the orders contained in the Resolution of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. $\frac{28\text{-Medical}}{980-990}$, dated the 31st October last, whether an officer who was in civil employ in another Province is entitled, after his transfer to the Punjab, to supersede officers already in permanent civil employ in that Province on the occurrence of a vacancy, if the date of his entering into, or confirmation in, civil employ in his former Province is anterior to that of officers junior to him as regards their total period of service in civil employ.

2. In reply, I am to state that the general rule with regard to the seniority in civil employ of a Commissioned Medical Officer is as follows:—

As long as he is in temporary civil employ, his seniority in the Civil Department dates from his first appointment, and his confirmation in civil employ is regulated by that date. When he has once been confirmed, his seniority is regulated by the date of his confirmation.

If an officer who has already been confirmed in civil employ is transferred from another Province to the Punjab in the interests of the public service, he should, in accordance with the orders contained in the Resolution of the 31st October last, be appointed to the first substantive vacancy that occurs after all the officers in the Province of longer service in civil employ have been provided with appointments. His seniority in the Punjab list will then be regulated by the date of his original confirmation in civil employ, and he will be placed in the Departmental list above those officers who, although they were holding permanent civil appointments in the Punjab at the date of his transfer, nevertheless are his juniors, inasmuch as they were confirmed in civil employ at a later date than himself.

3. The above instructions are in accordance with the decision stated in the Resolution of the 31st October, which deals with the question of seniority as well as with that of eligibility for a permanent appointment, and which enunciates the principle that an officer transferred from one Province to another should be protected from pecuniary loss on transfer. Furthermore, it appears to the Government of India that in determining the seniority of a Commissioned Medical Officer the main factor should be the length of his service in the Civil Department and not the length of his service in any particular Province.

4. In paragraph 5 of the Resolution of the 31st October it is stated that the transfers proposed will be effected only in the interests of the public service. In the case of transfers which are effected entirely or in part in the interest of the officer himself the matter is different, and it is necessary to consider the claims of the officers already in the Province to which he is transferred. It appears from your letter and its enclosures that in the case which is now referred for orders, the position of three officers transferred to the Punjab from other Provinces is affected, namely, Surgeon-Major (A), Surgeon-Captain (B), and Surgeon-Captain (C). It appears that of these three officers, Drs. (B) and (C) were transferred to the Punjab mainly on account of their health, and that Dr. (A) was selected for duty in the Punjab at the request of the Government of the Punjab. In the case of Dr. (A) the Government of India consider that the principles explained above should be applied in their entirety, and that Dr. (A) should take position in the Punjab list of Commissioned Medical Officers in accordance with the date of his confirmation in civil employ. But in the case of Drs. (B) and (C) it appears to the Government of India that it will be sufficient if they are given permanent appointments in the Punjab according to the date of their confirmation in civil employ, and that they should not on their confirmation supersede any Commissioned Medical Officer already in substantive civil employ in the Punjab.

Telegram dated the 17th September 1903.

From—Simla,	To—Darjeeling.
From—India, Home,	To—Bengal, Financial.

No. 1119 Medical. Your No. 2157T.—M. of 3rd. Orders contained in Home Department letter of 29th March 1897 should be regarded as of general application.

In their Resolution No. $\frac{\text{28-Medical}}{\text{980-990}}$, dated 31st October 1896, the Government of India directed that when a Medical Officer in civil employ is transferred from a Province in which he has been confirmed, his position in respect of seniority and eligibility for a permanent appointment in the Province to which he is transferred shall be regulated by the date on which he entered civil employment. To give effect to this decision, they also laid down the rule that when a transfer of this nature is made, the Local Government to which the officer is transferred shall ordinarily appoint him to the first substantive vacancy which occurs after all officers in the Province of longer service in civil employment have been provided for. It is clear from these orders that both in the Province from which such an officer is transferred and in that to which he is transferred, the seniority of Commissioned Medical Officers is regulated by the date of their confirmation in civil employ. This principle has not hitherto been followed by the Government of Bengal, and accordingly the Lieutenant-Governor applied to the Government of India for a definite ruling on the subject, enquiring whether their orders were of general application. The orders passed by the Government of India in reply to this application are quoted in the preamble: they will be followed in future, and the Civil List will be arranged accordingly.

ORDER—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals and to all Commissioned Medical Officers serving under the Government of Bengal.

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

L. P. SHIRRES,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahi Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your memorandum No. 88I., dated the 31st August 1903, forwarding a copy of a letter from the Magistrate of Rangpur, in which he reports that Raja Mahima Ranjan Roy Chowdhuri, of Kakina, has contributed, in commemoration of the Coronation of His Majesty King Edward VII, a donation of Rs. 4,000 for sinking masonry wells in those portions of the district in which there is a deficiency of drinking water.

2. In reply, I am to request that you will be so good as to convey to the Raja the thanks of Government for this additional instance of his public spirit and liberality.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. Rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

7. The following are the principal documents to be prepared in the course of a survey and the preparation of a record-of-rights under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885:—

Village map.	Khewat.
Khasra.	Khatian.
Parchas.	Terij.

These and any other papers prescribed by the Board of Revenue shall be prepared in such manner as the Board may prescribe.

8. The record-of-rights, which shall be published under section 103A of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, shall be contained in the khewat and the khatian.

9. (a) The proprietary khewat shall show the character and extent of proprietary interests. It shall be first drawn up with reference to the registers maintained by the Deputy Commissioner under the provisions of the Land Registration Act, VII (B.C.) of 1876. As the record-writing proceeds, the proprietary khewat shall be altered in accordance with the facts of possession. The Settlement Officer shall, from time to time, under such instructions as the Board of Revenue may prescribe in this behalf, give information to the Deputy Commissioner of all alterations made in the khewat, and the Deputy Commissioner shall thereupon take action to make such corrections as may be necessary in his registers prepared under the Land Registration Act. If the Deputy Commissioner, after enquiry under the Land Registration Act, finds that any entry in the khewat is incorrect, a note shall be made in the khewat of his finding.

(b) A khewat may also, when the Revenue Officer thinks fit, be prepared to show the character and extent of the interests of tenure-holders, such of their interests as are of a raiyati nature being also recorded in the khatian.

10. (a) The khatian shall show in detail for all the lands of the village, estate by estate, landlord by landlord, tenant by tenant, and occupant by occupant, the lands included in each estate owned by each landlord and occupied by each tenant or occupant, with particulars of rent and area and of the incidents of each tenancy. (b) Lands cultivated or otherwise held direct by the proprietor shall be shown in detail in the khatian.

IV.—Attestation of the Record.

11. (a) When the map, khasra, khewat, and khatian for a village have been prepared in the manner prescribed by these rules and by instructions of the Board of Revenue consistent with them, the Revenue Officer shall issue a notification, in such form as may be approved by the Board, fixing a day which shall be not less than a week from the date of publication of the notification, on which he will be present at some place to be specified at or near the village, for the purpose of attesting and completing the record-of-rights; and with this notice the Revenue Officer shall issue a notice under section 4, Act IV (B.C.) of 1897, that he will on the same day commute predial conditions and services.

(b) The notification shall further state that on the day so fixed, or on any other day to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the Revenue Officer will record rents and status and commute and include in the cash rent of the holding the value of predial conditions and services in accordance with the rules prescribed by the Local Government, and deal with objections relating to entries in the record or omissions therefrom; and it shall require all parties interested in the subject-matter of the enquiry to attend at the time and place specified, with their parchas, and with such evidence as they have to offer in connection with the proceedings.

(c) Such notification shall be published by proclamation and beat of drum, and fixed up in the presence of not less than two persons in some conspicuous place in the village to which it refers.

12. The Revenue Officer may also, if he deem fit, take such additional measures under the powers conferred on him by rule 1 of this Chapter, as he may deem desirable to procure the attendance, at the place specified in the notification issued under the last preceding rule, of the occupants, under-raiyats, raiyats, tenure-holders, landlords, and proprietors, or their authorised agents.

13. On the date specified in the notification issued under rule 11, or on any other date to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the entries which have been made in the khewat and in each khatian shall be read out in the presence of such of the interested parties as are in attendance. If the correctness of any entry is questioned, the Revenue Officer shall dispose of the objection after local enquiry or otherwise: provided that if the correctness of the measurement be objected to, and a fresh measurement be demanded, the Revenue Officer may require the cost of the remeasurement to be deposited. If the measurement shows the original measurement to have been inaccurate, the amount deposited or any portion of it, may, if the Revenue Officer thinks fit, be refunded to the objector.

14. The Revenue Officer shall ascertain what raiyats claim the right to hold at fixed rates or fixed rents. If the right claimed is disputed by the landlord, the Revenue Officer shall call on the claimants for proofs of such right. He shall also see that for record-of-rights in regard to Mundari Khunt-khattidari tenancies referred to in section 2 (2) (g) and (h) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy (Amendment) Act of 1903, the special procedure prescribed by the new sections added to Act I (B.C.) of 1879 by section 47 of the amending Act of 1903 is observed.

15. The Revenue Officer shall ascertain what lands are held with a right of occupancy and what lands are held without such right, and shall record the lands severally as such. In doing so he shall have regard to section 6 of Act I (B.C.) of 1879 as amended by section 3 (2) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy (Amendment) Act of 1903, and to section 36A (1) (c) of the Act of 1879 inserted by section 20 of the said amending Act. To this end he shall be entitled to call upon the landlord or his agent to produce a statement showing the lands in respect of which he denies the occupancy right and the names of the cultivators thereof. On the production of such statement he shall explain to the cultivators the provisions of section 6, Act I (B.C.) of 1879. If after such explanation a cultivator admits that he is a non-occupancy raiyat in respect of any of those lands he shall be recorded as such in respect of the lands regarding which he makes such admission. If he does not admit himself to be a non-occupancy raiyat, the Revenue Officer shall call on the landlord to prove the allegations made by him in regard to such cultivator.

16. The Revenue Officer shall ascertain and record what lands are korkor, baiballa, khandwat, sajhwat, jalsasan, and ariat referred to in section 20, Act I (B.C.) of 1879. He shall also ascertain and record what lands are bhuinhari or khuntkatti referred to in section 19 of that Act.

17. The Revenue Officer shall summarily ascertain the tenant's present rent, and record it in the appropriate column of the khatians as the rent payable in respect of the land held by the tenant

18. (a) Demands other than rent, known as rakumat or begari predial condition or services, should be recorded separately from the rent in the khatian, and should be commuted according to the Chota Nagpur Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1903, and such rules as the Local Government may prescribe on that account. The cash value commuted according to the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 4 of the Chota Nagpur Commutation Act, 1897, as amended by section 49 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy (Amendment) Act, should be included in the total rent payable for the holding.

(c) No demand of any other kind will be recorded in the khatian.

19. When the record-of-rights and of existing rents has been prepared and attested in the manner prescribed in Rules 11 to 18, and when the record shall have been arranged and corrected in accordance with the orders which the Revenue Officer may have passed, he shall record a proceeding in which he shall state that attestation of the records of the village has been completed, and shall then cause the draft record-of-rights to be published in the village in the manner provided in rule 20.

V.—Publication of the Draft Record.

20. (a) As soon as the record-of-rights has been prepared and attested, a notice shall be posted up at the landlord's office in the village or, in the presence of not less than two persons, in some conspicuous place in the village, stating that the draft of the record will be published in the village on a day to be specified, not less than a week from the date of the posting of such notice, and calling on all persons interested to attend on the date so specified: provided that the draft of the record shall not be published until the proceeding under rule 19 has been recorded. A similar notice of draft publication will simultaneously be issued under section 9A (5) of the Chota Nagpur Commutation Act, IV (B.C.) of 1897, as amended by the Chota Nagpur Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1903.

(b) On the date fixed for the publication of the draft records, the Revenue Officer shall either proceed to the village himself and read the contents of the records in the presence of the parties who attend, or he shall depute an officer, not below the rank of kanungo, who shall read out the contents of the records in the presence of as many of the parties as attend, and the Revenue Officer or officer deputed by him, as the case may be, shall at the same time inform the parties who attend that the draft records will be open for inspection for not less than one month in the office of the Revenue Officer, or in such other convenient place as the Revenue Officer may determine. The Revenue Officer shall receive and consider any objection which may be made to any entry during the period named.

VI.—Disposal of Objections under section 103A.

21. When an objection is made within and before the expiry of the period of publication of the draft records prescribed under rule 20 (b) regarding the correctness of an entry or as to the propriety of any omission, notice of the objection shall be served on all persons whose interests may, in the opinion of the Revenue Officer, be affected thereby, and they shall be called upon to attend at such time and place as the Revenue Officer may fix for the the disposal of the objection. If no person attends to contest the objection, the objection may be allowed and the records amended accordingly, or the person who made the objection may, if the Revenue Officer thinks fit, be called upon to produce evidence in support of his objection.

All such objections shall be dealt with summarily under such instructions as the Board of Revenue may prescribe.

VII.—Final Publication of the Record-of-rights.

2. Where such notices are directed to several persons resident in different villages, a fee of 8 annas shall be levied for service in each village.

In addition to the above fee, the actual charge which must be incurred, if it is necessary to travel by railway or boat, or cross ferries, will be levied from and paid by the person at whose instance the process is issued before issue of the process. If a peon carries more than one process involving charges for railway-fare, boat-hire, &c., the sum leviable will be charged, in equal shares, upon all the processes so carried.

4. If a peon is detained at the place of service for more than 24 hours at the request of the person at whose instance the process was issued, or of his agent, such person or agent must then and there pay demurrage at the rate of 3 annas a day. POWERS OF OFFICERS.

1. In carrying out their duties under this Act, Revenue Officers shall have regard to the instructions of the Board of Revenue for the guidance of Revenue Officers so far as such instructions are consistent with the rules hereby prescribed.

2. In the performance of their duties under this Act, Revenue Officers shall, except where otherwise provided for by law, or by these rules, be subject to the general direction and control of the Commissioner of the Division and of the Board of Revenue, and Revenue Officers other than District Officers shall, except when it is otherwise ordered by the Board of Revenue, be subject to the general direction and control of the District officers, provided that, in settlements under the control of the Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture, Revenue Officers gazetted as Settlement Officers and Assistant Settlement Officers are subject to the general direction and control of the Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture, Bengal, unless otherwise directed by the Board of Revenue.

3. Every Revenue Officer appointed under this Act is vested with—

(a) All the powers of a Civil Court in the trial of suits so far as they are required for the purpose of making enquiries under the Act and with all the powers of a Revenue Officer conferred upon him by the Chota Nagpur Commutation Act, IV (B.C.) of 1897, as amended by the Chota Nagpur Tenancy (Amendment) Act of 1903.

PROCEDURE FOR COMMUTATION OF PREDIAL SERVICES, &c., AT THE INSTANCE OF PARTIES.

4. Service of notices under section 4.—Service of notices under section 4 of the Act shall ordinarily be effected in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons on a defendant by Act I (B.C.) of 1879 or other law locally in force.

5. Rules for the preparation and publication of records.—The following processes will ordinarily be comprised in preparing a record of predial conditions or services attaching to lands, and in making a commutation of such conditions or services:—

(1) Identification of lands.
(2) Preparation of preliminary record.
(3) Attestation of the preliminary record and ascertainment of existing rents.
(4) Commutation of predial services or conditions.
(5) Preparation and publication of the draft record.
(6) Disposal of objections.
(7) Final publication of the record.

6. If the local area of an estate for which the notification is issued under section 5 of the Act exceeds the area of a village according to the revenue survey, the record shall be prepared for each such village. If it does not exceed such an area, the record shall be prepared for such local area or estate as is included in the notification.

7. When the landlord and tenant are agreed as to the lands which are subject to predial conditions or services, the lands shall be entered in the record according to such agreement.

8. If there is a dispute as to such lands, the Revenue Officer shall, after due enquiries, determine what lands shall be entered as subject to predial conditions or services.

9. If it be necessary for the purpose of identifying such lands, a map of the village, local area or estate may be prepared. It shall show the boundaries of all lands subject to predial services or conditions, and such other particulars as the Board may prescribe.

10. There shall be no measurement of lands or preparation of a map except under the orders of the Deputy Commissioner.

11. The record to be prepared under section 6 of the Act shall show for each village, local area or estate the following particulars:—

(g) Commuted rent, if any, fixed for such conditions and services.
(h) Total money-rent fixed for each tenant.

12. When the records referred to in rules 7 to 9 have been prepared, the Revenue Officer shall issue a notification fixing a day and place on and at which he will be present to attest and complete the record: provided that no such date shall be less than one week from the date of the issue of the notification in any such village, nor shall any such place be more than three miles distant from any such village. The notification shall require all parties concerned to attend at the time and place specified, with statements of their respective claims and such evidence as they may have to offer in connection with the proceedings.

13. Such notification shall be published by proclamation and beat of drum, and by posting it in the presence of not less than two respectable inhabitants in some conspicuous place in each village to which it relates.

14. The Revenue Officer may also, at this or any other stage of the proceedings, take such additional measures, under the powers conferred on him by rule 3 above, as may seem to him necessary, to procure the attendance, at any time and place fixed for the enquiry, of any witness or the production of any evidence that may appear to him desirable.

15. On the date specified in the notification to be issued under rule 13, or on any other date to which the proceedings have been adjourned, the entries which have been recorded for each tenant shall be read out in the presence of such of the interested parties as are in attendance. The particulars as to the predial conditions and services to which any lands are subject and the existing rent of the tenant's holding shall be summarily ascertained and entered. If the correctness of any entry or the omission of any entry is disputed, the Revenue Officer shall enquire into and summarily dispose of any matter in dispute, after recording, if necessary, the evidence tendered on either side and making such further local or other enquiry as he may deem desirable to enable him to come to a correct finding. He shall record a separate proceeding in each case of dispute.

16. The Revenue Officer shall then, if required, proceed to fix the rent which shall be deemed payable in respect of such predial conditions and services, and shall enter it and the total rent of the holding so ascertained on the preliminary record.

17. When the entries have been made and attested in accordance with the preceding rules, the Revenue Officer shall record a proceeding in which he shall state that the attestation of the preliminary record is complete, and shall prepare the draft of the record required by section 6 of the Act in the subjoined form.

19. On the date fixed for draft publication, the Revenue Officer shall either proceed to the village himself, and read out the contents of the record in the presence of the parties who attend, or he shall depute an officer, not below the rank of kanungo, who shall read out the contents of the record in the presence of so many of the parties as attend, and the Revenue Officer or officer deputed by him, as the case may be, shall at the same time inform the parties who attend that the draft record will be open for inspection for not less than one month in the office of the Revenue Officer, or in such other convenient place as the Revenue Officer may determine. The Revenue Officer shall receive and consider any objection which may be made to any entry in the record or to the omission of any entry therefrom during the period named.

20. When an objection is made before the expiry of the period of publication of the draft record prescribed under Rule 19 above, regarding the correctness of an entry in the record or the propriety of any omission therefrom, notice of the objection shall be served on all persons whose interests may, in the opinion of the Revenue Officer, be affected thereby, and they shall be called upon to attend at such time and place as the Revenue Officer may fix for the disposal of the objection. If the objection is contested, the Revenue Officer shall enquire into the case, and after taking evidence, if necessary, or making such enquiry as he thinks necessary, shall dispose of it as provided in Rule 15. If no person attends to contest the objection, the record may be amended accordingly, or the person who made the objection may, if the Revenue Officer thinks fit, be called upon to produce evidence in support of his objection.

21. When all objections have been disposed of by the Revenue Officer, he shall record such corrections and additions, if any, as are required to carry out the orders passed in regard to these objections. 22. (a) The Revenue Officer having completed the record shall cause copies of it to be made, one of which, or extracts from which, will be made over to the landlord concerned or, where there are more landlords than one, to their common agent or common manager, as the case may be, and one to the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

(b) An extract from the record relating to his tenancy shall be given to every tenant under the seal of the Revenue Officer, and under the signature of an officer duly authorised by the Revenue Officer to give copies.

(c) Copies of the record or of extracts from the record supplied to landlords and tenants under this rule shall be given free or on payment according as, in the case of each local area, the Local Government may direct. When payment is required, the sums so recovered shall be adjusted against the expenses incurred on account of preparing the record.

23. The Local Government may, if it thinks fit, direct that a final report be written in English for each local area, estate or village for which a record has been prepared. The report will show—

(a) The number of tenants in such area and the total area of lands held by them distinguishing those subject to predial conditions and services and those not subject.

(b) A description of the predial conditions and services and of the method in which their value has been commuted, if commutation has been ordered.

(d) Any other facts deserving of notice affecting the area for which a record has been prepared.

(e) The cost of preparing the record in accordance with these rules.

If the area for which the record has been prepared exceeds the area of a village, a general report may be prepared as above for the whole area.

W. A. INGLIS,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Section I.—For the giving of Notice.

1. The Master of every vessel on board of which there is, or has been during the previous twelve days, either among the passengers or crew, any case of cholera, small-pox, measles, chicken-pox, or other dangerous infectious or contagious disease, declared by the Governor-General in Council to be common in India, or, in the case of a vessel not carrying a doctor, any death from any cause, shall report every such case or death to the Pilot or other boarding officer at the earliest opportunity.

2. In the absence of a Pilot or other boarding officer, or, if the vessel be at anchor within port limits when such death occurs, or such disease first breaks out, the Master of every vessel shall hoist a signal which shall be, during the day, flag L* of the Commercial Code at the main, and during the night, two white lights, one above the other and six feet apart at the fore.

* This is a square flag of yellow and black borne quarterly.

3. The Pilot or other boarding officer shall promptly report the circumstances of the case to the Port Officer, who will at once forward any report so made, or give notice of any signal hoisted in pursuance of rule 2 to the Port Health Officer, and, if he considers it necessary, to the local sanitary authority.

4. The Pilot on receiving the notice under rule 1, shall hoist a signal which shall be, during the day, flag L of the Commercial Code at the main, and during the night, two white lights, one over the other and six feet apart at the fore, and shall telegraph from the nearest telegraph office, the number of cases of dangerous infectious or contagious diseases on board and the number of deaths from such causes that may have occurred during the voyage. This information shall be sent—

At Calcutta	To the Port Officer.
" Chittagong	" the Port Health Officer.
" the Cuttack and Balasore ports ...	" the Collector of the District and the Port Officer, Chandbali.

5. The officer receiving the information shall, in the case of small-pox, immediately communicate it to the police.

Section II.—Berthing of the Vessels.

6. If the number of deaths, or cases of disease referred to in rule 1, does not exceed two, the vessel will not be prohibited from taking up the usual place of anchorage in the harbour except that she may not enter the docks (where there are docks) without written permission of the Port Health Officer and the passengers or crew not suspected of having any of the diseases described in rule 1 need not (except in the case of pilgrim and emigrant ships) be detained on board pending the inspection of the Port Health Officer, but the Master of the vessel will be held responsible that no one of the passengers or crew having, or suspected of having, any such disease, is allowed to depart before this inspection, and shall also prevent the landing of infected bedding, clothes, or other personal effects, which he has reasonable cause to consider likely to be infected.

7. If the number of deaths within the previous twelve days has exceeded two, or the cases of any such disease are, or have been during the previous twelve days, more numerous than two, and when from their occurring on pilgrim or emigrant ships, or for other special reasons, further precautions may be deemed advisable, the Master shall hoist the signals referred to in rule 2 above, and anchor the vessel in the place appointed for the purpose, and shall not allow any of the passengers or crew to leave the vessel until the Port Health Officer has made his inspection.

8. So long as the abovementioned signals are shown, no tindal or other person in charge of, or navigating any boat shall, without the permission of the Port Officer, attempt to make such boat fast to, or shall take it alongside, such vessel.

Section III.—The inspection of the Vessel.

9. Whenever the Port Health Officer receives the notice referred to in rule 4 above, he shall proceed without delay on board the vessel and examine her, and the Master shall give him every facility for the examination of the passengers, crew, personal effects, cargo, and any part of the ship. In the case of a report of a death or deaths from any cause on a ship not carrying a doctor, he shall institute such enquiries as he may deem necessary to determine the cause of the death or deaths. If he is satisfied that the death or deaths was or were not due to cholera, small-pox, measles, chicken-pox, or other dangerous, infectious or contagious disease declared by the Governor-General in Council to be common in India, he shall permit the vessel to proceed to anchorage and to discharge passengers and cargo without any further restrictions. If he is not so satisfied, he shall proceed as provided in rule 12 et seq. of these rules. The inspection by the Port Health Officer will ordinarily take place between sunrise and sunset.

10. On the completion of the inspection provided for in rule 9, such of the passengers and crew as are found to be free from any of the abovementioned diseases and unlikely to carry infection, shall be allowed to land. All baggage, personal effects, and cargo, except such articles, as the Port Health Officer is entitled to disinfect, may also be landed.

11. If a case of any of the diseases mentioned in rule 1 happens on any vessel, after she has entered dock or has been moored at a wharf, the Master shall forthwith cause information thereof to be given to the Dock Master or Superintendent of the wharf, and shall be responsible that the sick person shall be isolated as much as possible, and that free communication with the wharf is stopped until the Port Health Officer has inspected the vessel and enquired into the case.

Section IV.—The taking of the sick to Hospital.

NOTE.—The regulations in sections 4, 5 and 6 should be carried out only when the Port Health Officer considers them necessary to prevent the spread of disease.

12. When the Port Health Officer considers it necessary, in order to prevent the spread of any dangerous infectious or contagious disease, he may inspect the vessel, including the passengers and crew, and may arrange, for the conveyance of all persons suffering, or suspected by him to be suffering, from such disease to a sanitarium or hospital, unless the sick person or his friends can make adequate provision elsewhere.

13. The removal of passengers is not to be enforced in the case of persons bound for an onward port, unless under the clearest necessity; and of every such case a special report explaining the reasons for the action taken must be submitted to the Government.

14. The Port Health Officer shall inform the Municipal Health Officer in all cases in which he arranges for the conveyance of a patient to a sanitarium or hospital or other place within municipal limits, and shall furnish the address of any private accommodation to which he permits the removal of a patient.

15. Where small-pox is the disease, on account of which the vessel is deemed infected, the Port Heath Officer shall offer, without charge, vaccination or re-vaccination of all persons willing to be operated upon, and shall cause to be vaccinated, with the consent of their guardians, all children below ten years and over six months of age who do not bear marks of vaccination or of small-pox.

Section V.—The disinfection of infected articles.

16. The Port Health Officer shall, if he considers it necessary, either himself undertake, or direct the Master of the vessel to undertake, the destruction or disinfection of all clothing, bedding, and other articles of personal use which have been used by any person suffering from any of the diseases abovementioned and are, or are likely to have been, soiled with infective matter or to retain infection.

17. When a vessel with one or more of the abovementioned diseases on board has passengers in a filthy and unwholesome condition, the Port Health Officer may cause the clothing and personal effects of such persons to be disinfected before allowing their disembarkation.

18. In the case of undecked native craft, the Port Health Officer may direct the disinefction, or in special cases the destruction, of food-stuffs which have been exposed to contamination and he thinks likely to be infected.

Section VI.—The disinfection of the infected parts of a Vessel.

19. The Port Health Officer shall as the result of the examination made under rule 9 above, direct the disinfection of any portion of the ship that has actually been exposed to contamination, and may prohibit the discharge of bilge water or water ballast within port limits. If the disease is cholera, the Port Health Officer may direct the Master to have the bilges and water-tanks emptied and cleaned.

Section VII.—Disposal of dead bodies.

20. Dead bodies shall be disposed of as follows:—

(1) If a death occurs on board a vessel before the vessel enters port limits, the body shall be buried at sea, in not less than 9 fathoms of water, in such a manner as shall insure its sinking at once and remaining below water.

As exceptions to the foregoing rule:—

(a) At Calcutta, if a death occurs on board a vessel after passing Saugor and the vessel is not reaching Calcutta the same day, the body shall, with the permission of the Magistrate of Diamond Harbour, be buried at that place; if the vessel is arriving at Calcutta the same day, the body shall be kept on board until the Port Health Officer has determined the nature of the disease and has had made arrangements for burial or cremation on shore. The Pilot shall telegraph particulars both to the Port Officer and Health Officer of the Port. The Port Officer, on receiving the information, shall at once communicate it to the Deputy Commissioner of Police.

(b) At Chittagong, if a death occurs on board a vessel after entering the river and before she has entered port limits, the body shall be kept on board, until the Port Health Officer has determined the nature of the disease and has had made arrangements for burial or cremation on shore.

(2) If a death occurs during the day on board a vessel within port limits, the ensign and house flag are to be immediately lowered half-mast, and kept in such position from sunrise to sunset as long as the body remains on board. If a death occurs between sunset and sunrise, one red light is to be hoisted at the peak half-mast.

(3) The Master of the vessel will cause the death of any person on board to be made known at once to the police, either by letter or otherwise, and shall also forward to the Port Officer a written report as soon as possible after the occurrence, in which all the circumstances attending the death are to be fully detailed.

(4) No dead body is to be removed from the ship, within port limits, without the permission of the police authorities which shall not be given until the Port Health Officer has determined the cause of death. Unless the special permission of the senior officer of police at the port to its interment on shore shall have been obtained, a dead body shall be buried at sea, in not less than 9 fathoms of water, in such manner as shall insure its sinking at once and remaining below water.

Section VIII.—General.

21. The Master of a vessel coming under these rules shall comply with all the directions which the Port Health Officer considers it necessary to give under the foregoing rules.

22. Nothing in these rules shall be deemed to prevent a vessel, whose Master is unwilling to submit to the above regulations, from proceeding to sea, provided that there has been no communication between such vessel and the shore or with other vessels in the port.

APPENDIX A.

I.—Personal effect such as rags, bandages, papers, and other articles of no value which the Port Health Officer believes are likely to carry infection should be burned.

II.—Underclothing, bedding, wearing apparel, mattresses, carpets, etc., which are contaminated or are suspected to be contaminated, should be exposed for 15 minutes to saturated steam at a temperature of not less than 212°F., (100C.), care being taken that the steam shall reach all parts of the article to be disinfected.

III.—The disinfectants to be used are the following:—

(1) A solution of corrosive sublimate 1 part in 1,000 of pure water*, with the addition of 5 parts in 1,000 of common salt (Chloride of Sodium). This solution should be tinted by the addition of aniline blue or indigo. It should not be brought in contact with metals.

(2) A solution in water of clear carbolic acid. This solution should contain 5 parts of phenol in 100 parts of water.

(3) A solution containing 5 parts of commercial carbolic acid, free from tar oils, in 95 parts of a warm solution of soft soap.

(4) Lime wash, prepared as follows:—

Take a quantity of good quick-lime weighing two pounds and slake it by the gradual addition of about half a pint of water. The lime becomes hot, gives off steam and falls to a powder. This powder, if not used at once, should be kept in an air-tight vessel in a dry place. For use, the quantity of slaked-lime obtained from two pounds of quick-lime should be placed in a convenient vessel and water added to make one gallon. Whenever possible, freshly slaked-lime should be used to make the lime wash.

* Preferably distilled or rain water.

Special instructions to be observed in the use of the disinfecting solutions.

IV.—Linen, clothing and articles which have been soiled by the discharges and excretions of patients should be soaked in the solution of corrosive sublimate* or in one of the carbolic acid solutions for at least six hours.

V.—Articles which cannot, without injury, be exposed to a temperature of 212°F., such as leather goods, wooden articles stuck with glue, felt, etc., should be washed with the solution of corrosive sublimate. Metal articles or any material which would be injured by contact with the solution of corrosive sublimate should be soaked in a solution of carbolic acid.

VI.—The lime wash is particularly recommended for disinfecting excreta.

VII.—Expectorated matter should be burnt.

VIII.—Attendants on the sick ought to take the precaution of washing their own hands and faces with the solution of corrosive sublimate and afterwards with warm water.

Disinfection of ships.

IX.—The cabins, forecastles, holds, water-closets or latrines occupied or used by persons suffering, or suspected to be suffering from an infectious disease, should be cleared out, and all the articles in them should be treated as directed above. Floors, walls and partitions should be disinfected with the solution of corrosive sublimate, care being taken that every part is scrubbed and washed until it has been thoroughly wetted by the disinfecting solution. Two hours afterwards the walls, etc., should be washed with clean water.

X.—In ships, in which cases of cholera have occurred, the drinking water should be pumped out and the water tanks and casks disinfected with solution of permanganate of potash acidulated with hydrochloric acid, before fresh drinking water is taken on board.

Disinfection of the bilges of an infected ship.

XI.—Sulphate of iron in quantity sufficient to neutralize the sulphuretted hydrogen should first be thrown in: the bilge should then be pumped out and flushed with sea water. After the sea water has been pumped out, a suitable quantity of corrosive sublimate solution should be thrown in. The bilge water should not be pumped out within port limits without the authority of the Port Health Officer.

* The same solution, even if it remains clear, should not be used more than three times, since the corrosive sublimate will be removed from the solution in combination with the organic matter in the clothing.

Alleppey—Positions of the Red and Black buoys at the entrance to the port.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 312, dated the 24th September last, issued by this office, the Acting Master Attendant, Alleppey, has given further notice, dated the 30th idem, informing Mariners that the positions of the buoys are as given below:—

Red (Northern) Buoy.

Bearing to Light House E ½ N.
Depth of water 4½ fathoms.

Black (Southern) Buoy.

Bearing to Light House N E ½ E.
Depth of water 3¾ fathoms.
Ordinarily the proper anchorage will be between the buoys; but, as the Mud bank shifts frequently and rapidly, the depth of water given is not reliable, and so the lead must be used when approaching the anchorage.

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AGRICULTURAL BRANCH OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE, BENGAL, FOR THE YEAR 1902-1903.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—AGRICULTURE.

Darjeeling, the 5th October, 1903.

RESOLUTION—No. 2487T.—R.

READ—

The Report of the Agricultural Branch of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture for the year 1902-1903.

Letter No. 6130A., dated the 7th August, 1903, from the Board of Revenue, submitting the Report with their remarks.

Read again—

Resolution on the same Report for 1901-1902.

THE Department was in charge of Mr. C. G. H. Allen from the 1st April, 1902, till the 28th February, 1903, while for the remainder of the year Mr. S. L. Maddox officiated as Director. If 38 days spent by Mr. Allen on deputation with the Irrigation Commission be included, altogether 202 days were spent on tour by the Director and Officiating Director in connection with settlements and agricultural work during the year under report. Special attention was directed, during the tours of these officers, to the working of veterinary dispensaries, the development of sericultural operations, and the question of establishing an Agricultural Research Station at Pusa; inspections were also made of the Burdwan, Sripur, Dumraon and Sibpur Farms, and of the agricultural research work conducted at Peepra and Dalsingsarai.

2. Scientific Enquiries.—Enquiries were continued during the year as to the effect of the imposition of countervailing duties: so far as can be ascertained at present in this Province, it would appear that these duties have not had the effect of stimulating the indigenous cultivation of sugar or of arresting the decay of the sugar refining industry.

The enquiry as to the alleged deterioration of jute referred to in last year's Resolution was continued during the year: seeds of different varieties were procured locally from the most important jute districts and sown at the Burdwan Experimental Farm. The result of the continued selection of jute seed on this farm has been satisfactory, and it is hoped that the experiments which have been extended this year to the districts of Mymensingh, Jalpaiguri and Faridpur will lead to greater attention being paid to this important subject. The Director has recently brought to the notice of Government the excessive proportion of moisture found in jute offered for sale, and special enquiries are being conducted by him as to the alleged practice of fraudulently watering the fibre, and as to the measures which are necessary to prevent this form of deception.

3. Experimental Farms and Experiments in Government Estates and Wards' Estates.—Experiments with various manures, crops and methods of cultivation were carried on, as in former years, at the Burdwan and Dumraon Experimental Farms. The results of the trials at the Burdwan Farm of the deep-shared Sibpur plough have amply proved its superiority to the local plough; the trials at the Dumraon Farm of implements procured from Bombay failed, because the local bullocks are not accustomed to them. Important experiments with different varieties of cotton were tried at the last-named farm, the results of which will, it is trusted, help to solve the problem as to the varieties which may most suitably be introduced in this Province.

At the Sripur Cattle Farm in Saran, the system of cattle breeding has been materially changed during the year under review in conformity with the advice of experts: the practice of importing cattle of the Hissar breed, in order to cross them with local cattle, has been abandoned for the present, and efforts are being made to improve and develop the indigenous strains of this Province without having recourse to foreign stock.

The Lieutenant-Governor has observed with gratification the beneficial influence of the Chittagong Farm, which has, it is reported, done much to improve the agricultural knowledge of the people of the district, and, in particular, has led to the establishment in the district of several similar farms

His Honour is pleased to notice the useful work done by a travelling overseer in the district of Backergunge, and agrees with the Director that District Officers might with advantage follow this example and endeavour to obtain expert assistance in agricultural work.

Mr. Allen in his Report for the year 1901-1902 drew attention to the fact that many of the experiments which are conducted in Government and Wards' estates fail, owing to neglect and want of adequate supervision. He urged that demonstration farms should be established near the head-quarters of each district, where they could be supervised by the District Officer, and that the money now devoted to petty and isolated experiments might be much more usefully spent in the form of contributions to such farms. The scheme submitted by Mr. Allen with the object of giving effect to these proposals, and, generally, of reorganizing the Agricultural Department of the Province on a popular basis, so as to bring it into direct relations with the classes of the community which are dependent upon agriculture, has been duly considered by Government. After giving the subject his most careful attention, the Lieutenant-Governor reluctantly came to the conclusion that Mr. Allen's scheme was too ambitious, and that, for the present, the Bengal Agricultural Department should devote itself especially to research work, and that gradually, and in due course, this work could be usefully combined with the demonstration of results. In accordance with these views, His Honour has decided that the Research Station, with an Agricultural College and classes attached to it, which will, it is hoped, shortly be opened in Bengal, should, in future, form the nucleus of all research work in this province, and that round this centre should be grouped experimental farms, one in each Division, manned by minor experts trained at the Research Station, and conducted on the strictest possible scientific principles. Research work would be carried on in these Divisional farms, and the superiority of improved agricultural methods would also be demonostrated on them, or on farms situated in Government or Wards' estates. The Director's proposals for giving effect to these orders will be awaited by Government.

4. Sericulture.—The efforts of the Bengal Silk Committee, which have for some years been assisted by Government, to restore the silk-rearing industry by instructing the rearers how to select seed and to rear silkworms have been attended with a considerable measure of success, and the record of the work done during the year is one of continuous progress. In Birbhum, where the operations of the Committee last year were unsuccessful, prospects are now hopeful; in Bogra, it is gratifying to observe that confidence in modern methods has been secured, and that the rearers of silkworms are now returning to their abandoned occupation. In the other districts to which the operations of the Committee have extended, viz., Malda, Murshidabad and Rajshahi, fresh nurseries have been established, the use of selected seed is spreading, and the work of the Committee has generally had most beneficial results. Sericultural instruction is imparted in the Industrial School at Rampur Boalia, of which the Sericultural School is a separate branch. The award of eight scholarships by the District Board of Rajshahi to sons of bonâ fide rearers, as also the scholarships given by the District Board of Malda and the Puthia Estate, are calculated to encourage the development of the silk industry. The success of the students in passing the examinations and in obtaining employment subsequently are satisfactory features in the working of the school.

5. The Sibpur Agricultural Class.—The results of the examinations reflect credit both on the teaching staff and the students; while the large increase in the number of admissions in the first-year class is decidedly encouraging.

6. Spread of Agricultural Education.—In accordance with a recommendation made by the Education Conference held at Simla in the year 1901, steps are being taken to afford greater facilities for instruction in agricultural methods. With this object Government has sanctioned, as an experimental measure, the establishment of demonstration gardens in connection with a few schools in the division of each Inspector of Schools, as also the opening of agricultural classes in five selected schools.

7. The Lieutenant-Governor fully recognizes the large amount of important work connected with agriculture which devolves on the Director in addition to his other duties, and the question of affording him expert assistance is, at the present time, under the consideration of the Government of India. His Honour is prepared to give favourable consideration to any reasonable suggestions which may be made by the Director for increasing the subordinate expert staff with the object of carrying out the scheme of work mentioned in paragraph 3 of this Resolution.

8. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due to Mr. Allen for the zeal with which he managed the Department during his tenure of the office of Director and to Mr. Maddox for an interesting report. The commendations bestowed by Mr. Maddox on Mr. D. N. Mookerji, Assistant Director, and Babu Grish Chandra Dutt, Personal Assistant to the Director, have been duly noted.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Dated Calcutta, the 5th October 1903.

RESOLUTION.

Administration Report of the Orissa Ports for 1902-1903.

READ—

Letter No. 937C., dated 1st August 1903, from the Commissioner of the Orissa Division, submitting the Report on the Administration of the Orissa Ports for the year 1902-1903.

Memorandum No. 1076C., dated 31st August 1903, from the Commissioner of the Orissa Division, with enclosures.

THE receipts, during the year 1902-1903, amounted to Rs. 21,242 against Rs. 13,364 in 1901-1902, showing an increase of Rs. 7,878. They include the sum of Rs. 7,679 realized by the sale of the old light exhibited on Shortt's Island which has been replaced by a new light.

2. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 17,122 against Rs. 15,451 in the previous year; the increase of Rs. 1,671 was caused by the payment of certain arrears of pension due by Cuttack and by the grant of an increase of pay to Mr. Mayston, who has been appointed Port Officer of all the Orissa ports.

3. The receipts, with the opening balance of Rs. 8,301, after covering the expenditure, left a balance of Rs. 12,128 at the close of the year, and no contribution from Government was required.

4. The value of trade was Rs. 84,39,316 in 1902-1903, against Rs. 82,42,330 in the preceding year. It is satisfactory to note that the trade of the Orissa ports, which has declined in value for some years, owing to the superior attractions of the railway, revived to a small extent during the year under review. There were larger shipment of rice from Cuttack and Puri and of jute and certain other articles from Balasore.

5. There was a slight increase in the number of vessels visiting the ports. Two hundred and thirty-seven vessels, of 131,050 tons, entered during 1902-1903, against two hundred and twenty-eight vessels, of 137,794 tons, in the year before.

6. The passenger traffic at the Ports of Chandbali and Puri showed a very slight increase. There is now practically no passenger traffic at Balasore or False Point.

7. The erosion of Shortt's Island is still very great. The island is building up to the westward. The new fifth order light continues to work well.

8. Three cases of plague and nine cases of cholera were landed at Chandbali from the steamers Curlew and Jatra from Calcutta; otherwise the state of health of the Ports was satisfactory.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

W. A. INGLIS,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

LAND REVENUE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LOWER PROVINCES.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

Darjeeling, the 9th October 1903.

RESOLUTION—No. 2530T.—R.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on the Land Revenue Administration of the Lower Provinces for the year 1902-1903.

The Report was punctually submitted to Government.

2. Collections, balances and remissions.—The collections of land revenue from all the three classes of estates were good. The total collections, as also the percentages of the current collections on the current demand and of the total collections on the total demand, were better than in any year of the past quinquennium; while the total balance outstanding at the close of the year was the lowest on record during the same period. The remissions granted during the year were also considerably below the average.

In estates held direct by Government the total collections were more than 99 per cent. of the current demand. The balance outstanding at the close of the year was Rs. 6,58,727, as against Rs. 7,09,387 at the end of the previous year; while, if the doubtful and irrecoverable arrears were excluded, the true recoverable balance would be reduced to Rs. 5,66,114, or 13·06 per cent. on the current demand. The current collections were below the fixed standards in the districts of Hooghly, Murshidabad, Dacca, Faridpur, Darbhanga, Purnea and Malda. The explanations furnished by the local officers in respect of the short collections in Hooghly are not satisfactory, and the remarks made by the Board of Revenue in regard to the conduct of Maulvi Shuffeeooddeen Ahmed, Sub-Deputy Collector, who was responsible for the bad results in the Ulubaria subdivision, will be communicated to the Appointment Department of this Government. The arrear collections fell considerably short of the fixed standards in eight districts, and were lowest in Palamau, where the percentage reached was only 33·25. The explanations furnished are generally satisfactory, and the Lieutenant-Governor agrees with the Board that, in the special circumstances of the Palamau Government Estate described by them, the collections there were as good as could reasonably be expected.

3. Road and Public Works Cesses.—The current demand of cesses showed an increase of Rs. 2,67,658, as compared with the figures of the previous year, this large enhancement being mainly due to revaluations in the districts of the 24-Parganas, Nadia, Khulna, Bogra, Backergunge, Gaya, Shahabad and Purnea, and to the assessment of coal mines in the districts of Burdwan and Manbhum. The collections were generally good, a percentage of 100·4 having been reached, as against 99·8 in the previous year; while in twenty districts the collections were above the prescribed standard of 100 per cent. on the current demand.

4. Remittance of land revenue and rent by means of money-orders.—The number of revenue money-orders increased from 212,821 in the year 1901-1902 to 239,954 in the year under report, the amount of land revenue and cesses remitted increasing simultaneously from Rs. 20,03,034 to Rs. 23,35,051. Numerous mistakes having occurred owing to the fact that, under the rules at present in force, three classes of demand, viz., land revenue, zamindari dâk cess, and road and public works cesses, are entered in a single money-order form, Government has recently approved a proposal submitted by the Board of Revenue that separate forms of money-order should be introduced for (1) land revenue and zamindari dâk cess, and (2) road and public works cesses. It is reported that the new forms will be introduced with effect from April, 1904.

There was a small increase (5,575) in the number of rent money-orders. The increase was shared by almost all the districts in which this system of remittances is in force, except Purnea and Malda. In these two districts there was a considerable decrease both in the number of orders issued and in the amount covered by them. In the case of the former district, the decline is attributed to the abnormal increase in the number of money-orders which had occurred during the preceding year, owing to the strained relations which prevailed in that year between the Darbhanga Raj and its tenants; while in Malda this form of remittance was seldom used, owing to the good feeling which existed, during the year under review, between the landlords of the district and their tenants.

5. Coercive processes.—As in previous years, the sale law was leniently worked, the number of estates actually sold being only 9·8 per cent. of the number which were liable to sale for non-payment of land revenue. There was a small increase (556) in the number of defaults, as compared with the figures of the previous year, but the number of sales decreased by 49. The increase in defaults is more than accounted for by the erroneous procedure (noticed in paragraph 32 of the Report, which had been followed in former years in the district of Muzaffarpur. As in previous years, sales for the arrears of one kist were generally concluded before the next kist. The Lieutenant-Governor is gratified to observe that this good result was obtained for the first time during the year under review in the district of Chittagong.

There was a large decrease (79,463) in the number of certificate cases instituted, as compared with the figures of the previous year. The decline was most marked under the head of "Cesses," and was the result of the orders according to which the issue of certificates for petty arrears is prohibited, unless such arrears are likely to be barred by limitation. Under the head "Court of Wards," the release of the Burdwan Raj Estate from the management of the Court of Wards accounts for the decrease in the districts of Burdwan, Bankura and Hooghly. Under the head "All other certificates" there was a decrease of 11,723 cases in the districts of Noakhali and Chittagong, due, in the case of the former district, to the withholding of certificates for petty arrears on account of dâk cess, and, in the latter, to the completion of the proceedings for the recovery of the cost of survey and settlement operations. It is hoped that the orders issued in February, 1903, directing that road and public works cesses of rent-free lands should be collected through the zamindars in whose estates they lie, will lead to a still further reduction in the number of certificates issued.

6. Condition of the raiyats on Government Estates and expenditure on improvements.—The condition of the raiyats on Government estates during the year was generally good. In Bankura, the tenants suffered from floods in the river Darkeswar and consequent damage to their crops. The partial failure of crops, following a similar failure in previous years, and an outbreak of cholera and small-pox, caused some suffering in Midnapore. In Tippera, a bad jute season and an unsatisfactory outturn of the chilli and til crops resulted in a general lack of ready money among the cultivators, and collections suffered seriously in consequence. The tenants of the district of Chittagong have not yet recovered the losses sustained by them owing to the cyclone of the year 1897. In the Palamau Government estate, the transfer of the protected forests to the management of the Deputy Commissioner and the grant of certain necessary concessions and privileges are said to have materially advanced the condition of the people. A very large number of deserted holdings in that district were settled during the year, owing to the energy of the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. Lyall, while only 65 desertions occurred, as against 766 in the previous year. The Lieutenant-Governor agrees with the Commissioner and the Board of Revenue that credit is due to Mr. Lyall for the energy and zeal which he has displayed in the management of this large estate.

The expenditure on miscellaneous and sanitary improvements in Government estates during the year amounted to Rs. 2,30,041. Of this amount, Rs. 44,232 were spent on tanks and wells, Rs. 86,657 on drainage and irrigation works and embankments, Rs. 13,155 on roads and bridges, and the balance on miscellaneous works. The Lieutenant-Governor notices with satisfaction that Rs. 11,960 only out of the total amount (Rs. 2,42,001) allotted for works of improvement remained unexpended at the close of the year.

7. Drainage.—The collections on account of the Rajapur and Howrah drainage schemes, amounting to Rs. 2,01,896 and Rs. 65,435, respectively, were satisfactory. The recent amendment of the Bengal Drainage Act has reduced the rate of interest payable on money advanced by Government from 5 to 4 per cent., and has empowered the zamindars to obtain from the Revenue Court orders for the issue of summary processes against their tenants. The Collector has already received 9,371 requisitions for the issue of such processes.

8. Land Registration.—It is satisfactory that, as directed in the Resolutions on the Land Revenue Administration Reports for the years 1900-1901 and 1901-1902, the Board have added to their Report a new Appendix, viz., Appendix XXXIII, showing the intermediate registrations effected during the year, and the percentage of such mutations on the number of existing interests. The statement discloses the fact that in many districts the percentage in question is very small. In all such cases, special enquiries should be made with the object of ascertaining whether adequate measures under Act VII (B.C.) of 1876 are taken to secure applications for registration.

9. Land Acquisition.—The result of the change as regards the system of supervision over officers of the general line employed on land acquisition work exercised by the Board, and referred to in paragraphs 119 and 120 of the Report, should be noticed in the review for the current year. A special report should be submitted at an early date, explaining why so many cases have been pending for long periods in the Burdwan and Bhagalpur Divisions.

10. Takavi Advances.—The Board have furnished the statistics required by the Government of India showing the financial results of the loans granted under the Land Improvement Loans Act and the Agriculturists' Loans Act during the seven years 1896-97 to 1902-1903. A sum of Rs. 9,50,[illegible]37 was advanced under the former Act, of which Rs. 6,31,949 were recovered and Rs. 55,949 were remitted. The interest which accrued on the sum advanced during the period amounted to Rs. 1,07,229 of which Rs. 1,01,034 were realised and Rs. 1,183 were remitted. The total present loss to Government amounts, therefore, to Rs. 57,132. As the Board observe, against this sum may fairly be set off a sum of Rs. 26,140, as representing the difference between the rate at which Government may be assumed to have borrowed money and that at which it lent the same. Under the Agriculturists' Loans Act a sum of Rs. 20,36,278 was advanced, out of which Rs. 18,38,644 were recovered and Rs. 7,144 were remitted. The interest which accrued during the period amounted to Rs. 2,07,718, of which Rs. 1,92,765 were realised and Rs. 1,238 were remitted. The total present loss to Government amounted, therefore, to Rs. 8,382 only, and, as noticed by the Board, against this sum may be set off a sum of Rs. 55,997, as representing the difference between the two rates of interest alluded to above.

It is observed that collections under the Agriculturists' Loans Act are much better than those under the Land Improvement Loans Act. The period reviewed being seven years only, the fact that loans under the former Act are repayable at much shorter intervals than those under the latter Act would, apparently, account for this result. The Lieutenant-Governor would, however, be glad to be informed if this inference is correct, and to be furnished with an explanation showing why it was found necessary to remit so much larger a proportion of the money advanced under the Land Improvement Loans Act than of that advanced under the Agriculturists' Loans Act.

11. Working of the Bengal Tenancy Act.—A Full Bench of the High Court having decided that, in proceedings instituted under section 103 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, Settlement Officers have jurisdiction to settle fair rents under section 105, and to decide disputes under section 106, a set of revised rules for dealing with applications under that section has lately been framed by Government and published in the Calcutta Gazette. Applications under Chapter X of the Act increased from 69 in the previous year to 98 during the year under review, and it is expected that the number of such applications will continue to increase.

12. Rent suits under Acts X of 1859 and I (B.C.) of 1879.—There was a further increase in the number of rent suits in the Orissa Division, viz., from 19,953 in the year 1901-1902 to 23,014 in the year under report. The Board have, as in last year's report, attributed this rapid increase to the fact that, owing to the enhancement of the land revenue at the last settlement, landlords cannot afford to allow arrears to remain so long outstanding, and that the settlement records make it easy for zamindars to prove their claims in Court. The increase in the number of rent suits in the Chota Nagpur Division, from 5,652 to 7,394, is heavy, particularly in the Ranchi and Manbhum districts, but no explanation has been offered. The Lieutenant-Governor will be glad if the Board will cause an enquiry to be made, and will submit a report on the subject. In Balasore damages were allowed to plaintiffs in 77 per cent. of the cases decreed, as against 28 per cent. in the previous year. Similarly, in Hazaribagh, the percentage rose from 23 to 43. His Honour wishes to be furnished with an explanation of these sudden and large increases, and would request the Board to continue to watch the operation of the penal provisions of Acts VI (B.C.) of 1862 and I (B.C.) of 1879 in the Orissa and Chota Nagpur Divisions.

13. Inspection.—The failure of certain Subdivisional Officers to inspect their sub-treasuries is unsatisfactory. His Honour must insist on the orders regarding such inspections being strictly carried out in future.

14. Weather and Crops, Prices of Food, and Wages of Labour.—The rainfall of the Province during the year, though generally well distributed, was excessive in a few districts, and in others below the average. The harvests were generally good. In most districts prices were lower than in the previous year. Wages remained stationary, except in a few districts where they rose owing to a special demand for labour on account of railway construction or other work.

15. Material condition of the people.—This was quite up to the average. A special report on the utbandi system of tenure of lands in the district of Nadia was submitted by the Board during the year. After careful consideration of the history of this question, the Lieutenant-Governor came to the conclusion that it is doubtful whether the evils imputed to this system are so serious as they have been represented to be. The subject will be dealt with in a separate communication to the Board.

16. Agricultural Banks.—Thirty-seven new Agricultural Banks were started during the year, viz., 15 in Government estates, 11 in wards' estates, and 11 in private estates. The total number of banks open at the close of the year was 48, viz., 20 in Government estates, 14 in wards' estates, and 14 in private estates. The amounts advanced to these banks in the three classes of estates were Rs. 5,357, Rs. 3,553, and Rs. 5,670, respectively The scheme is still in the experimental stage, and, though hopeful signs are not wanting, it is too early to pronounce any confident opinion as to its success.

17. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due to the Board of Revenue for their efficient administration of the Land Revenue Department and for their full and interesting report. The paragraphs in which officers are mentioned as deserving of special commendation will be communicated to the Appointment Department of this Government.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

A. EARLE,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. Rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast; d, drizzling rain; p, passing temporary showers; t, thunder; ⌓, dew; g, gloomy.

DRAFT RULES.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Bengal Motor-Car and Cycle Act, 1903, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following rules for regulating the use of motor-cars and motor-cycles in streets and public places in the town and suburbs of Calcutta:—

Definition.

1 In these rules the expression "motor-car," does not include a traction engine and only includes such vehicles, carriages or other means of conveyance or engines as, being propelled or capable of being propelled either entirely or partially by mechanical power, run on ordinary roads or streets, as distinguished from such as run on special rails.

Construction.

2. A motor-car or motor-cycle shall not be used in any street or public place unless it is so constructed as to admit of its being at all times under due control so as to prevent undue interference with passenger or other traffic.

Brakes.

3. A motor-car or motor-cycle shall not be used as aforesaid unless it is provided with two independent brakes in good working order and of such efficiency that the full application of either brake to the car or cycle will—

(a) cause two of the wheels on the same axle to be so held as effectually to prevent the wheels from revolving, or

(b) stop the car or cycle as if the wheels were so held.

Maintenance.

4. Every motor-car or motor-cycle used as aforesaid, and all the fittings thereof, must be maintained in such a condition as to prevent danger to the public or to any person riding on the car or cycle.

Certificate of competency.

5. A motor-car or motor-cycle shall not be used or left in any street or public place unless there be in charge thereof a person who holds a certificate, granted or recognised by the Commissioner of Police, to the effect that he is competent to drive, and to control the use and movement of the car or cycle.

A fee of Rs. 16 shall be payable for such certificate.

Speed.

6. A motor-car or motor-cycle shall not be driven in any street or public place at any speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic; and shall not be driven at a greater speed than—

(a) twelve miles an hour, in any case, or

(b) eight miles an hour, in the case of a motor-car, if the weight of the car, when unloaded, is not less than one ton and-a-half, and not more than two tons; or

(c) five miles an hour, in the case of a motor-car, if such weight exceeds two tons; or

(d) six miles an hour, in the case of a motor-car, if the car is drawing any vehicle; or (e) seven miles an hour, in the case of a motor-cycle driven in a street or public place where traffic is congested.

Speed-indicator.

7. An effective speed-indicator, in proper working order, and of a pattern to be approved by the Commissioner of Police, shall be carried on every motor-car or motor-cycle when used in any street or public place.

Number.

8. (1) A motor-car or motor-cycle shall not be driven in any street or public place unless there be attached, in large legible figures, in a conspicuous place on the back and sides of the car or on the back of the cycle, a number for the identification of the car or cycle.

The number shall be so placed that it shall be clearly visible when the lamp mentioned in rule 9 is lit.

(2) Such number shall be that assigned to the car or cycle by the Commissioner of Police on the owner registering his name and address in the office of the said Commissioner of Police.

A fee of Rs. 10 shall be payable for such registration.

Light.

9. (1) To every motor-car and motor-cycle there shall be attached a lamp constructed and placed so as to exhibit—

(a) a white light visible within a reasonable distance in the direction towards which the car or cycle is intended to proceed, and

(2) The lamp shall be placed on the extreme right or off side of the car, or in the front of the cycle; it shall be placed in such a position as to be free from all obstructions to the light, and shall show clearly the number mentioned in rule 8.

(3) The lamp shall be kept lit so long as the car or cycle is in use in any street or public place during the period between half-an-hour after sunset and half-an-hour before sunrise.

Rule of the road.

10. The person in charge of any motor-car or motor-cycle which is being used in any street or public place shall, when meeting any conveyance, horse or cattle, keep the car or cycle on the left or near side of the road; and shall, when passing any conveyance, horse or cattle proceeding in the same direction, keep the car or cycle on the right or off side of the road.

Footways, etc.

11. A motor-car or motor-cycle shall not be driven on any footway, or in any street or place where its use may be attended with danger to the public.

Bell.

12. Every motor-car and motor-cycle shall, when used in any street or public place, carry a bell or other instrument capable of giving audible and sufficient warning of the approach or position of the car or cycle; and the person in charge of the car or cycle shall sound such bell or instrument whenever it is necessary to do so.

Stoppage.

13. (1) The person in charge of any motor-car or motor-cycle which is being used in any street or public place shall cause the car or cycle to stop and to remain stationary so long as may reasonably be necessary, whenever he is requested so to do—

(a) by any police-officer, for the purpose of regulating traffic, or for any other reasonable purpose, or

(2) Such request may be made by such police-officer or person putting up his hand as a signal to stop.

Schofield, U.S.S. Supply, shows that in the area embraced between the parallels of 12° 43′ N. and 13° 6′ N., and meridians of 144° 16′ E. and 144° 38′ E., south-westward of Guam island, the bottom is uneven and irregular, and that there are many dangerous shoal heads within this area.

Mariners are warned against crossing the above-mentioned area; a clear channel, however, is believed to exist between it and the South point of Guam island.

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ARCHÆOLOGICAL SURVEYOR, BENGAL CIRCLE, FOR THE YEAR ENDIG WITH APRIL, 1903.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—MISCELLANEOUS.

Darjeeling, the 17th October, 1903.

RESOLUTION No. 2141T.—G.

READ—

The Annual Report of the Archæological Surveyor, Bengal Circle, for the year ending with April, 1903.

The Government of India in their Resolution No. 26—28-2, dated the 7th July, 1903, ordered that the annual report of the Archæological Surveyor should be submitted in a revised form. They added, however, that if the introduction of any alteration in the form of the report would delay its submission in the present year, the change should be postponed. Inasmuch as the report for 1902-1903 had been submitted to Government before the receipt of the Resolution of the Government of India referred to, and as great delay would have been caused by calling on the Archæological Surveyor to remodel his report in accordance with the instructions conveyed therein, it has been considered advisable to postpone to next year the introduction of the changes prescribed by the Government of India.

2. Dr. Bloch was in charge of the Archæological Department throughout the year, except from the 10th July to the 17th October, 1902, when he was absent on leave. He was 140 days on tour, out of which about 53 days were spent in Assam. As it is understood that the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of Assam will deal with the recommendations which Dr. Bloch has made concerning the archæological remains visited by him in that province, no remarks are made with regard to them in this Resolution. In Bengal Dr. Bloch visited the objects of archæological interest extant in the districts of Malda, Bhagalpur, Monghyr, the Sonthal Parganas, Hazaribagh and Manbhum, as also the Black Pagoda in the district of Puri.

3. The districts in which the most important work of restoration and repairs is being carried on are Puri, Malda and Shahabad. The Lieutenant-Governor visited Puri and Bhubaneswar in March last: at the latter place His Honour inspected the work in progress, and was fully satisfied with the manner in which it was being done. Mr. Bourdillon regrets, however, that, owing to the unusual bigotry of the custodians of the Lingaraj Temple at Bhubaneswar, Government was unable to give any grant towards the repairs of this very fine temple. The work of removing sand and fallen stones from the Black Pagoda at Kanarak was nearly completed during the year, and satisfactory progress was made in other work connected with the preservation of the buildings there. The conservation of the archæological remains at Gaur and Pandua in the district of Malda is a subject which has engaged the continuous attention of Government. At Gaur repairs to the Lattan Masjid, the Baradwari Masjid, the Dakhil Darwaza and the Tantipara Masjid are being executed; while, at Pandua, the Ek-Lakhi Masjid, Sona Masjid and Adina Masjid are being repaired. After the close of the year under report the Lieutenant-Governor visited Pandua and gave orders for certain further repairs to be carried out. The suggestion of Dr. Bloch that the Sona Masjid in the Firozpur suburb of Gaur should be restored has already been accepted by Government; also the work of repairing the Firoz Minar, which was interrupted owing to the unhealthiness of the locality and the difficulty of securing labour, will now be resumed. Estimates of the cost of repairing both these relics have been called for. In Shahabad the restoration of the Rhotas Palace and other remains on the plateau were executed during the year, while the mass of stones and rubbish round the Mandheswari Temple near Bhabhua have been removed, and the remains of the temple walls have now been brought to light.

4. Important work has also been done in conserving archæological remains in other districts. At Vishnupur, in the district of Bankura, the interesting temple, known as the Jor Banglá, was repaired. The Jama Masjid at Hadaf, near Rajmahal, has been repaired at the cost of the Nawab Bahadur of Murshidabad, while in Manbhum the Maharaja of Cossimbazar is engaged in restoring the temples at Barakar, which are the finest specimens of ancient Hindu temples in the district. Sanction has been accorded to the repairs of the Asoka pillar of Rampurwa in Champaran and of the tomb of Bakhtiyar Khan near Chainpur in Shahabad; while estimates have been prepared for the repairs of the minar mosque, and dargah of Shah Safi at Pandua, and the mosque and dargah of Zafar Khan Ghazi at Triboni, both in the Hooghly district, as also for the tomb of the Bengal Sultan, Ghiyasuddin Azam Shah at Sonargaon, in the district of Dacca. Proposals have been made for conserving the dargah of Shah Nafah, which is stated to be the oldest building in Monghyr, and the tomb and fine mosque of Khan Jahan at Bagerhat, in the Khulna district: all these will now receive careful consideration.

5. The total expenditure incurred last year on the restoration or repairs of ancient monuments in Bengal amounted to Rs. 90,125, of which Rs. 26,518 were spent on the buildings at Gaur and Pandua and Rs. 33,708 on the repairs of the temples in the district of Puri; while the expenditure on the restoration of the Rhotas Palace in Shahabad amounted to Rs. 29,278.

6. A large number of photographs taken during the tours of Dr. Bloch and his Assistant was submitted with the Report. As, however, there was no trained photographer on the staff, these were inferior in quality, and much of the value of the work done has been lost. The Government of India have lately drawn attention, in their Resolution No. 26—28-2, dated the 7th July, 1903, to the great importance of making a free use of photography in archæological work, and Dr. Bloch's proposals for carrying out the wishes of that Government, with which Mr. Bourdillon is in entire accord, will be awaited.

7. The Lieutenant Governor has observed with satisfaction that several new inscriptions have been discovered and interpreted. The proposal that the slab containing the inscription of the Bengal Sultan, Ruknuddin Kaikaus, which is now lying inside the dargah of Makhdum Shah of Luckeeserai, in the district of Monghyr, should be set up in one of the walls of the dargah, should be separately submitted. The question of the removal of the inscriptions, which have been found at Kalna, in the district of Burdwan, to the Indian Museum is now under the consideration of Government.

8. His Honour is of opinion that it is a matter for consideration whether the time has not now come to prepare a "Corpus Inscriptionum" for Bengal. The basis of such a work would be the publications already made by the Archæological Surveyor to the Government of India and the Asiatic Society. The list, when prepared, could be kept up to date by additions being made to it from time to time as fresh inscriptions may be discovered or deciphered by the Archæological Surveyor, the Asiatic Society, or private explorers: this subject will be separately considered in consultation with Dr. Bloch. Apart from this particular question, it cannot be doubted that there is a wide field as yet unexplored in which much remains to be discovered; and that if an intelligent interest in archæology could be roused in Government officers in the mufassal, educated non-officials and the landed gentry of Bengal, researches made by them would certainly yield valuable results. Not only is it likely that there are scattered about the Province inscriptions, copper-plates, monuments and coins which have not yet been brought to light, but the chronology of an entire dynasty of Kings of Bengal still awaits settlement. The Pala Kings of Bengal rose into power about the middle of the ninth century, but their inscriptions are for the most part dated in regnal years, so that their chronology is doubtful: any enquirer who could set at rest this doubtful question would make a valuable contribution to the history of the Province.

9. The thanks of Government are due to Dr. Bloch for the good work which he has done during the year and for the interesting report which he has submitted. The Lieutenant-Governor deplores the death of Dr. Bloch's Assistant, Babu P. C. Mookerjee, who had long been personally known to His Honour, and who was an enthusiastic, persevering and acute antiquarian.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE ON WARDS' AND ATTACHED ESTATES FOR 1902-1903.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

Darjeeling, the 14th October, 1903.

RESOLUTION No. 2618T.—R.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on the Wards' and Attached Estates in the Lower Provinces for the year 1902-1903.

The Report on the Administration of Wards' Estates and Attached and Encumbered Estates has been punctually submitted by the Board of Revenue.

2. Number of estates under management.—The total number of estates under management during the year was 139 as against 140 in the previous year. The aggregate current demand of these estates on account of rent and cesses amounted to 96¼ lakhs of rupees as against 119¾ lakhs, the total demand of the estates under management in the previous year. The large falling off in the demand during the year under report was chiefly due to the release in October, 1902, of the Burdwan Raj Estate. The estate of the late Babu Gopal Lal Seal was also released in November, 1902, and made over to an Administrator, pendente lite, appointed by the High Court. The most important estates now under management are the Bettiah, Hatwa, and Tekari Estates in the Patna Division; 70 estates, or half the whole number, including all the encumbered estates (63 in number), are in the Chota Nagpur Division.

3. Payment of rent and cesses due (1) to Government, (2) to superior landlords.—The revenue and cesses due to Government were generally paid punctually, the total payments representing 99·5 per cent. of the demand as against 98 per cent. in the previous year. The total payments on account of rents and cesses due to superior landlords represented only 79 per cent. of the demand; and although the percentage of such payments was higher and the outstanding balances were lower than in the preceding year, there is still much room for improvement in this direction. As observed in the Resolution on the Report for the year 1901-1902, the obligation to discharge such liabilities is no less binding than it is in the case of the Government demand. It appears that the Board have already issued certain instructions to District Officers on this subject, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that they will continue to give the matter their particular attention.

4. Collections of rents and cesses.—The total collections of rents and cesses due to the estates under management were very satisfactory, being 104·6 per cent of the current demand—the highest figure reached during the last twenty years. The highest percentage (114·6) was attained in the Burdwan Division, in consequence of the excellent collections which were made in the Burdwan Raj Estate, while the lowest percentage (97·2) is reported from the Presidency Division, where it was partly due to defects (which are now being remedied) in the system under which collections were made in the Gobardanga and Bawali Estates, and partly to the fact that the estate of the late Babu Gopal Lal Seal was released from the Court of Wards before an improved method of management could be introduced. The districts in which collections exceeded 105 per cent. are Burdwan, Khulna, Dinajpur, Rangpur, Darbhanga, Bhagalpur, Cuttack, Puri, and Hazaribagh. The Lieutenant-Governor will await a report from the Board regarding the conduct of the Manager of the Nayagram Estate in Midnapore, to whose incapacity and negligence the unsatisfactory collections in that estate are in part attributed.

5. Balances.—The total uncollected balance due to the estates under management at the close of the year under report, though less by Rs. 4,21,670 than that remaining at the end of the previous year, amounted to Rs. 63,51,933, or about 66 per cent. of the current demand of the estates. It is alleged that a considerable portion of the uncollected balances in the Hatwa Estate is irrecoverable, and it is said that this circumstance is due to enhancements effected during the recent settlement proceedings; it is also stated that the question of revising the rent-roll of the estate is under the consideration of the Board. This is a serious allegation, and the Lieutenant-Governor desires that the Board will submit a special report on the subject; and that if they come to the conclusion that the enhancements were in fact excessive, a full explanation may be submitted as to the circumstances in which they were sanctioned by the Settlement Officer. His Honour notices with regret that the raiyats of the estates in Hazaribagh have not yet fully recovered from the effects of the famine of the year 1896-97, and that a partial failure of the winter rice crops, which occurred during the year under review, caused a slight increase of the balances in that district.

6. Reduction of debts.—Fifteen and three-quarters lakhs of rupees were paid in liquidation of debts as against 12½ lakhs in the preceding year. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to learn that two of the encumbered estates in the Chota Nagpur Division were restored to their proprietors clear of debt, and that in twenty-six other similar estates the amounts paid to the creditors either equalled or exceeded the amounts provided for the purpose in the schemes of management of those estates. The deficiencies in respect of payments in the case of the other estates have been sufficiently explained.

7. Cost of management and expenditure on improvements.—The total cost of management was 9·7 per cent. of the current demand as against 7·6 per cent. in the previous year. The increase, which was shared by all the Divisions, except those of Dacca, Chittagong, and Orissa, was chiefly due to causes of a temporary nature. It is satisfactory to observe that the Board have effected some reduction in the management charges of the Hatwa Estate.

8. Rupees 3,93,555, or a little more than 4 per cent. of the current demand of the estates, were spent on works of improvement, schools and dispensaries. In regard to the arrangements which the Board report that they have made with the object of bringing expenditure on agricultural experiments in Wards' estates more directly under the control of the Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture, and which are referred to in paragraph 14 of their Report, the attention of the Board is invited to the orders passed on this subject in the letter of this Government, No 2665Agri., dated the 10th August 1903, to the address of the Director. In that letter it has been laid down that demonstration should follow research work, and that it will be sufficient if, in the first instance, an attempt is made to open an experimental farm at the head-quarters of each Divisional Commissioner.

9. Education of wards.—The arrangements made for the education of the wards, which are described in detail in paragraph 21 of the Board's Report, show that this important subject is receiving careful attention.

10. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due to the Board for their careful supervision and efficient administration of the estates under their charge during the year. The names of the officers commended by them will be communicated to the Appointment Department of this Government.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1903.

THE following note is published for general information.

A. EARLE,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 17th October 1903.

DEPARTMENT OF LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Preliminary Forecast of the Winter Rice Crop of Bengal, 1903.

Character of the Season.—The ante-monsoon showers were seriously defective throughout the Province except in Ranchi. This defect continued through June all over, except in North Bengal, the North Gangetic districts of Bihar, in some parts of the Presidency Division, and in Dacca, Mymensingh, Tippera and Noakhali. In July, rainfall was alarmingly defective in Birbhum, Murshidabad, all the districts of the Patna Division, in Hazaribagh, in Manbhum and in Palamau. During August the deficiency continued, but North Bengal, East Bengal (excepting Backergunge and Noakhali) and the districts of Birbhum, Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Bhagalpur and Monghyr received rainfall above the normal. In many districts paddy was resown in August, as the seedlings of the earlier sowing had either withered or become too woody for transplanting. In September there was abundant rainfall all over the Province except in Patna, Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur and Bhagalpur. On the whole, conditions have so far improved that there is no fear now of a general failure. The localities that are likely to suffer to some extent from partial failure of the winter rice crop are the Jamui subdivision of Monghyr, the Bhabua subdivision of Shahabad, the Dinapore subdivision of Patna, the Katwa subdivision of Burdwan, and possibly the Palamau district.

Area cultivated.—Since the issue of the final forecast of the winter rice crop of 1902, the Subdivisional Officer of Basirhat and the District Officers of Nadia. Pabna, Tippera and Ranchi have submitted revised figures for normal area. The total normal area under winter rice in the whole Province is now estimated at 30,544,600 acres against 29,879,300 acres shown last year. The area actually under this crop this year is estimated at 27,392,200 acres against 29,770,100 acres sown last year. The failure to sow the full normal area is due to the failure of the monsoon during the earlier months.

Character of the crop.—The following districts expect a bumper crop, i.e., a crop varying from 100 to 125 per cent.—Dacca, Mymensingh, Tippera, Darjeeling, Faridpur, Purnea, Champaran, Cuttack and Angul. The following districts expect a crop of 90 to 99 per cent.—Puri, Balasore, Darbhanga, Noakhali and Pabna. The districts that expect a crop of 80 to 89 per cent. are Singhbhum, Hazaribagh, Manbhum, Muzaffarpur, Chittagong, Backergunge, Bogra, Rangpur, Jalpaiguri, Dinajpur, Rajshahi, Khulna, 24-Parganas and Birbhum. Palamau and Patna return 75 and 70 per cent. respectively on much reduced areas. Shahabad and Bankura expect a 50 per cent. crop, while Monghyr expects only a 26 per cent. crop (including Jamui subdivision 10 per cent). According to the estimates of the District Officers the outturn of the Province, as a whole, is estimated at 82 per cent.; but as the Hathiya rains which we are now having are exceptionally favourable this year, I would add at least 5 per cent. to this estimate on this account.

Gross outturn.—Taking the provincial estimate at 87 per cent the gross outturn on 27,392,200 acres should amount to 262,629,700 cwts. as against 303,605,900 cwts. last year.

Offg. Director of the Dept. of Land Records and Agriculture, Bengal.

The figures are given as reported. Patna ...	Sadar	323,600	343,400	154,000	150,700	110,000	75	65	There was insufficient rain in July and August for transplantation. In Barh and Bihar subdivisions a very large area could not be transplanted; and in the other two subdivisions the area transplanted was much below the normal. The percentages here calculated are according to the rules on the area actually cropped, but they fail to give an idea of the paddy crop this year when nine-tenths of the normal area in Barh and two-thirds of the area in Bihar have not been cultivated.

Gaya ...	Sadar	1,219,200	917,900	496,800	326,000	240,000	85	65	The large decrease in the area sown with rice is due to failure of timely and sufficient rain. The outturn will probably be affected by the same cause, but everything depends on the continuance of rainfall. Transplantation still continue, but the produce of fields now transplanted is very uncertain. If rainfall continue to the Hathiya they may produce a 6 annas crop if it stops now they can produce nothing.

As the rain has arrived too late, a considerable area of paddy crop has been either left unsown or sown so late as to produce very little outturn. The prospect of winter rice has however very much improved since late, and is at present far from threatening.

Darbhanga	Sadar	783,000	617,400	382,000	425,000	425,000	80	100	The estimate is high because although the crop shows a very poor percentage in the Samastipur subdivision the area under cultivation in that subdivision is small as compared with the area under cultivation in the other subdivisions. The bad outturn from this subdivision, therefore, does not appreciably affect the district figures. The low outturn in Samastipur subdivision is due to the short rainfall, which has been confined to that area only.

Bhagalpur	Sadar	597,760	464,100	250,600	240,000	167,500	100	45	Want of seasonable rainfall scorched to a large extent the paddy seedlings, and affected the transplantation and the area ordinarily sown with paddy. The outturn has been badly affected in the Sadar and the Banka subdivisions. Transplantation has only been done in irrigated tracts in these subdivisions, and the prospects of the broadcast paddy, are as a rule, very poor.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE INDIGO CROP OF BENGAL, 1903.

THE following note is published for general information.

A. EARLE,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 16th October 1903.

DEPARTMENT OF LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Preliminary Forecast of the Indigo Crop of Bengal, 1903.

Explanatory.—The indigo-growing districts of this Province, which have more than 10,000 acres under this crop, are:—

				Acres.
Champaran	with	...	...	84,000
Muzaffarpur	"	...	...	48,000
Darbhanga	"	...	...	34,600
Purnea	"	...	...	23,000
Saran	"	...	...	19,300
Bhagalpur	"	...	...	12,000
Monghyr	"	...	...	11,500

Nadia and Murshidabad have lost their importance as indigo-growing districts, and elsewhere also the crop seems destined to die out.

Character of the season.—In January rainfall was defective everywhere in the indigo-growing localities except in Burdwan, Midnapur, and Rangpur. The February rains are of some importance for this crop, and during this month most of the indigo districts had more than the normal quantity of rain. But Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Saran, Monghyr, Murshidabad, Midnapur, Purnea, Malda, Rangpur, and Cuttack, which include more than three-fourths of the indigo area of the Province, had a short rainfall in February. In March, also, rainfall was defective everywhere except in Burdwan, Bankura, Murshidabad, and Jessore. In April, also, drought prevailed everywhere except in Saran, and May was equally droughty. In June improvement in the crop was noticeable everywhere except in Burdwan, Bankura, Midnapore, Patna, Gaya, Shahabad, the Sonthal Perganas, and Cuttack. But July was again droughty everywhere except in Rangpur. Since August conditions have improved, and the khunti will be a better crop than the mahai. On the whole, the season has been more favourable for the indigo crop this year than last year.

Area sown.—The area under indigo contracted further during the year by about 5,000 acres. There was some improvement noticeable in Purnea and Darbhanga. The contraction in area is entirely due to the competition of natural indigo with the synthetic product in the markets of Europe and America. The normal area under the crop is still shown as 387,300 acres, but considering actual facts, the normal will have to be reduced to 250,000 acres next year. The actual area under cultivation this year is estimated at 250,400 acres.

Character of the crop.—From Appendix I, it will be seen that, except in Purnea, District Officers everywhere expect an outturn below the normal. For the five districts of North Bihar, viz., Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, and Monghyr, the outturn is estimated at 56 per cent. of a normal crop, and for the remaining districts at 77 per cent. As conditions have improved considerably since the preliminary forecasts have been received from the District Officers, I estimate the crop for North Bihar to be a 60 per cent. one, and for the rest of Bengal to be an 80 per cent. one.

Gross outturn.—Assuming the normal yield of indigo per acre for North Bihar and for Gaya, Shahabad, Bhagalpur and Purnea to be 20lbs., and for the rest of the Bengal districts to be 12lbs., the total yield of indigo in North Bihar is estimated at 31,584 factory maunds as compared with 24,905 maunds of the preceding year ; and in the remaining area at 9,792 factory maunds against 7,472 maunds of the past year, the total coming to 41,376 factory maunds, a factory maund being equal to 75lbs.

Messrs. Moran and Company estimate the outturn of North Bihar at 28,700 factory maunds, and of Bengal at 6,000 factory maunds, or a total of 34,700 factory maunds.

Approximate area sown last year (1902) in acres.	Estimated area sown this year (1903) in acres.	Taking 100 to represent the normal outturn, how much represented outturn last year (1902)? Presidency—concld	Jessore ...	1,872,000	1,203,800	1,900	400	500	13	25	Last year the normal area under this crop was shown as 14,000 for the whole district evidently by an error. This normal area has to be revised again by the Subdivisional Officer of Magura, which he promises to do soon. This crop is not cultivated in any other subdivision. For want of rainfall the area and outturn under indigo crop have been estimated below the normal.
Rajshahi ...	Rangpur	2,236,520	1,234,900	6,600	4,100	2,000	80	50	The cultivation of indigo is gradually dying out.
Patna ...	Gaya	3,015,680	2,207,600	100	100	100	75	50	The crop is grown to a nominal extent in this district. The decrease in the percentage of yield is due to the deficiency of rain in July.
	Shahabad ...	2,198,720	1,841,500	7,700	1,000	500	77	43	The decrease in the area sown this year is owing to the closing of the Behia and Telari Indigo Concern. The reduced outturn is due to insufficient rain. Indigo is grown in only one factory—Balleali.
	Saran	1,710,468	1,357,200	45,500	19,300	19,300	32	45	The area in column 3 has been revised according to the figures in the final survey and settlement report of the district. Insufficient rain has reduced the prospect of outturn.

	Champaran ...	2,2[illegible]	1,447,600	96,000	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	The drought from October to May and excessive rain and flood account for the low outturn.
	Muzaffarpur .	1,942,2[illegible]	1,637,000	6[illegible],000	45,000	48,000	24	46

Bhagalpur ...	Monghyr ...	2,500,449	1,582,800	15,000	12,630	11,5[illegible]0	75	75	The crops suffered owing to want of rain and also to visitation of [illegible] in places. Falling off in area sown is due to the bad prospects of the industry.
	Bhagalpur	2,7[illegible],640	2,097,[illegible]	13,000	12,[illegible]	12,[illegible]	76	[illegible]2
	Purnea	3,195,520	1,[illegible]	40,000	16,[illegible]	[illegible]	50	1[illegible]	The increase in area sown during the year is due to the favourable weather and to the [illegible] of the [illegible] Concern agreeing to sow indigo.
	Malda	1,216,000	675,860	5,000	2,000	1,[illegible]	100	75	The cultivation of indigo has almost been abandoned in this district. The area shown in column 7 has been sown in thana Ratua only. The decrease in the outturn is due to want of rainfall at the time of growth.
	Sonthal Parganas	3,500,[illegible]	1,[illegible]45,300	[illegible]	[illegible]	1,200	81	85	The decrease in cultivation is due to several factories being closed at Dumka, Jamtara, Rajmahal, and also to the introduction into the market of some artificial German indigo sold at a cheaper rate. Owing to favourable weather for this crop, Rajmahal expects a better outturn than that of last year.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER 1903.

WEATHER during September was, with but little interruption, of the south-west monsoon type, that is, rainfall was of almost daily occurrence over a great part of the Province. But the showers were usually light, and the rainfall of the month as a whole was below the average over the northern districts.

Two shallow depressions developed over Lower Bengal—one about the middle of the month, and the other towards the end. They caused heavy rainfall in both cases, which extended to the western districts as the depressions moved westward. It was chiefly owing to the heavy falls during these two periods of disturbance that the rainfall for the month in the southern districts is in excess of the normal.

Over the Bay exceptionally settled weather prevailed, and any indication of cyclonic disturbance was of very brief duration. Wind velocity was on only one occasion above 10 miles an hour at Diamond Island, and on the west coast it was nowhere above 20 miles after the early days of the month.

Rainfall in September, on an average for the larger divisions, was 10 to 20 per cent in excess in Lower Bengal and Orissa. The fall in Chota Nagpur was 94 per cent. of the normal, in North Bengal 81 per cent., and in Bihar 71 per cent. It will be seen in a table below that the total rainfall from the beginning of the year to the end of September is 67 per pent. of the normal in Bihar, 75 per cent. in Chota Nagpur, 85 per cent. in South-West Bengal, and 90 to 95 per cent. in East and North Bengal and Orissa.

Weather was disturbed at the end of August owing to shallow depressions which were forming in the north-west of the Bay and moving north-westward. The after-effects of the last of these were still apparent at the beginning of September in the strongish southerly winds on the Orissa coast. The pressure distribution was becoming normal, and on the 2nd the variation was small at all stations. From that time until about the 9th ordinary weather prevailed over the Province and the Bay. Showers were of almost daily occurrence in all parts of the Province and moderate southerly winds continued at sea. On the 9th pressure was falling slowly in the north of the Bay and in Lower Bengal, and winds were cyclonic in direction about a centre near the Bengal coast. Rainfall became more scattered in the northern districts. The break, however, was only partial and not of long continuance, as the depression developed over Lower Bengal and moved to the western districts on the 12th.

The greatest depth of the depression was little more than ·1 inch, but while over Lower Bengal and afterwards in the western districts heavy rain fell in the central area. On the 12th most of the Lower Bengal stations reported 2 to 4 inches, and on the 13th some of the stations in the west of Bihar received 2 inches.

By the 14th the depression had disappeared, and the pressure distribution was again normal in Bengal. A slight depression soon after formed off the Orissa coast, but it caused nothing more than changeable winds for a day or two with general light rainfall in Orissa.

Meanwhile pressure was rising in Bengal, and by the 18th a considerable excess had developed, with a uniform distribution over the Bay. The high pressure continued until the 23rd, when weather became disturbed in the north of the Province.

This disturbance in the north was shown by falling pressure, a strong indraught towards the Himalayan range and the commencement of heavy rainfall at northern stations. From the Darjeeling and Jalpaiguri districts heavy falls were reported on the morning of the 25th, and on the following days the disturbance extended southward and westward over Bengal. Numerous thunderstorms occurred as the disturbance progressed. General rain, heavy in places, fell over the whole Province accompanied by a general fall of temperature.

Immediately afterwards a shallow depression formed over Lower Bengal. It was fairly well defined on the morning of the 28th, and then it moved westward with little further development. Moderately heavy rainfall was general in the southern districts, and followed the depression westward during the closing days of the month.

The cyclonic disturbance in Lower Bengal towards the close of the month caused little or no change over the north of the Bay. The highest wind velocity at Saugor Island was 18 miles an hour on the 30th and at Gopalpur 21 miles on the 28th. At other times the wind velocity was about normal for the season of the year.

Pressure for the month as a whole was more uniform than usual over Bengal and the Bay. The difference from the normal varied from a small excess in Bengal to a small defect in Madras.

Considerable variations occurred from time to time, the most important being (1) the excess in Bengal at the end of the third week, and just before the disturbed weather began in the north; (2) the deficiency during the periods of disturbed weather about the middle and towards the end of the month.

Temperature was on an average for the month above the normal in the north of the Province and slightly below in the southern districts, where cloud was heavier and rainfall more general. The variations from the normal were generally small and unimportant. In Bihar excess was nearly 1°, while in other divisions and in Assam the variation was under half a degree.

Rainfall on an average for the larger divisions was fairly normal over the greater part of the Province. In Lower Bengal and Orissa there was excess of between 1 and 2 inches, in Chota Nagpur a small defect, and in North Bengal and Bihar a moderate defect.

At Silchar there was a large excess, more than 10 inches, and at Gauhati a small excess. At all other Assam stations there was defect. The difference is very striking at Cherrapunjee where only 13·5 inches were received instead of a normal fall of more that 50 inches.

While the averages for the divisions show fairly well distributed rainfall, considerable variations are shown by a detailed examination, and these variations are more marked in the northern districts than in the south, where general heavy rainfall was caused by two shallow depressions. Along the foot of the Himalayas, and over the northern half of North Bengal, the fall exceeded 10 inches. To the south of that line rainfall diminished rather rapidly in Bihar. Over considerable portions of the Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Patna and Monghyr districts, and in part of the Sonthal Parganas the total fall for the month was less than 5 inches and in places less than 3. Generally in Chota Nagpur and the Central districts of Bengal, the fall was between 6 and 8 inches, and in the southern area over 10 inches.

Except in Bihar and the Sonthal Parganas the falls for the month were either in excess or in relatively small defect. In the west of North Bihar and also over a considerable area in the east, chiefly the Bhagalpur district, defect was between 5 and 8 inches. Over small and scattered areas in Monghyr and the Sonthal Parganas defect was similar in amount. Shahabad and Gaya were the only districts in Bihar which received rainfall in excess. In the former excess varied from 2 to 7 inches.

Generally rainfall was in defect over the northern half of the Province, with the exception of part of Cooch Bihar, Dinajpur, and the greater part of Shahabad and Gaya. In Lower Bengal, Orissa and the west of Chota Nagpur, there was a general but somewhat irregular excess.

The following table gives a condensed summary of the rainfall statistics of the present year up to date for each meteorological division, the first nine columns giving the actual average falls in each division for each month expressed as a percentage of the normal, while the tenth column gives the actual rainfall of the first nine months as a percentage of the normal rainfall for that period :—

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. Rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

RESOLUTION REVIEWING THE REPORTS ON THE WORKING OF MUNICIPALITIES IN BENGAL (EXCEPT CALCUTTA) DURING THE YEAR 1902 1903.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—(MUNICIPAL).

Darjeeling, the 23rd October 1903.

RESOLUTION No. 2908T.—M.

READ—

The Reports from the several Commissioners of Divisions on the working of Municipalities in Bengal (except Calcutta) during the year 1902-1903.

Read again—

The Resolution reviewing the Divisional Commissioners' Reports on the working of Municipalities during the year 1901-1902.

The number of Municipalities in Bengal, on the 31st March 1902, was 157. Two new Municipalities were formed during the period under review one at Dumka, the head-quarters of the Sonthal Parganas District, and the other at Nawabganj in the District of Malda. As, however, the new Municipalities were formed towards the close of the year, this Resolution deals only with the statistics of the 157 Municipalities which were in existence throughout the year 1902-1903.

2. Financial position of the Municipalities.—The most important fact brought out, when the statistics submitted by the Commissioners of Divisions are compared with those sent up with previous reports, is the great and general improvement in the financial administration of the Municipalities which has been steadily effected during the last five years. Financial reform is the necessary preliminary to other reforms, since without funds punctually collected little can be achieved, and although assuredly much remains to be done before the working of the Municipalities of the Province can be regarded as wholly satisfactory, the results already compassed may fairly be taken as an index of the manner in which other problems are being faced, and furnish a good augury for the future. It is a matter of great personal satisfaction to Mr. Bourdillon, that before his departure from the Province he is able to place on record his appreciation of the improvement which has been effected in a department of the Administration with which his own work in Bengal has been closely connected, and in which he has always taken deep interest.

3. At the beginning of the year 1898-99, the aggregate of the outstanding uncollected balances on account of the Municipal taxes of all the Municipalities came to Rs. 6,52,216, or 22·2 per cent. of the current demand. At the commencement of the three following years, 1899-1900 to 1901-1902, the amount successively stood at Rs. 6,05,800, Rs. 5,48,526 and Rs. 5,14,826; on the 1st April 1902 it was Rs. 3,59,248, and on the 31st March 1903 it was still further reduced to Rs. 3,41,578, and it then represented only 9·9 per cent. of the current demand. This result has been accompanied by an increase in the percentage of total collections on current demand, from 92·5 per cent. in 1897-1898 to 95·8 per cent. in the year under review; and at the same time the percentage of total remissions on total demand has fallen from 4·6 to 4·2 per cent. Simultaneously with the decrease in the outstanding balances, the current demand has risen in five years from Rs. 28,35,594 to Rs. 34,36,766, or by 21·2 per cent. If the Municipalities created during the period in question be excluded the increase is 20·3 per cent. During the same period the net balance of the outstanding loans, after deduction of the sinking funds, has risen from Rs. 29,58,247 to Rs. 32,45,876; but while the former sum is considerably greater than the income from taxation of the year 1897-98, the latter is considerably less than the similar income of the year 1902-1903. The Lieutenant-Governor also notes, with pleasure, that the expenditure on roads in the Municipalities dealt with in the report for 1897-98 has risen from Rs. 4,19,908 to Rs. 5,31,600, or by more than 26·5 per cent.; for although good roads are not more important than good drainage or good conservancy, the roads are usually the first item to suffer when financial embarrassments occur, and the increased expenditure under this head may be taken as a clear sign of improved administration.

4. The financial improvement referred to above has not been confined to one part of the Province but has been general throughout all the Divisions, except Bhagalpur. The highest standard during the year under review was attained in the Dacca Division, where the percentage of total collections on current demand was highest while the percentage of outstandings on current demand was lowest, and the percentage of remissions (1·6) was small. The Lieutenant-Governor congratulates Mr. Savage on the financial position of the Municipalities in his Division, and would only point out that the enhancement of current demand has been less in that Division than the Provincial average and that the percentage of rate payers is lower there than elsewhere. The greatest improvement in the last five years, however, has been manifested in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions. In the former Division, the outstanding balance at the beginning of 1899-1900 was Rs. 3,69,533 or 41·1 per cent. of the current demand, but at the close of 1902-1903 this sum had been reduced to Rs. 1,71,403. The latter figure represents 17·7 per cent. of the current demand which is very high, and much above the Provincial average, but the steady progress achieved is deserving of high praise, and the Lieutenant-Governor hopes that it will continue: practically, all the Municipalities of the Division show improved results except that of Burdwan itself. In the Presidency Division, the arrear demand at the commencement of 1897-1898 amounted to Rs. 1,63,331 and this has been reduced to Rs. 32,587 which is only 4·4 per cent. of the current demand. In the Orissa Division, on the other hand, the improvement which was at first shown has not been maintained during the last two years, and the percentage of total collections on current demand was only 84·35 during the year under review. In the Bhagalpur Division, the outstanding balance at the end of 1902-1903 was 20·7 per cent. of the current demand against 20·6 at the close of 1897-98. The particular attention of the Commissioner is invited to this deterioration.

5. Of individual Municipalities those deserve to be first mentioned, in this connection, in which the whole or practically the whole of the demand has been collected. There were 23 Municipalities in the year under review, as against 8 in 1897-98, in which either the whole demand was collected or the balance outstanding amounted to less than ten rupees. They were:—Tamluk, Baruipur, Titaghur, Meherpur, Azimganj, Kandi, Jessore, Moheshpur, Jamalpur, Sherpur, (in Mymensingh), Kishoreganj, Netrokona, Madaripur, Nalchiti, Tikari, Daudnagar, Jagdispur, Dumraon, Bhabhua, Madhubani, Deoghur, Sahibganj and Kendrapara. Next come the following 17 towns in which the total collections exceeded the current demand:—Kharar, Kotrung, Howrah, Bally, Tollygunge, Jainagar, North Barrackpore, Budge-Budge, Satkhira, Rampur Boalia, Sirajganj, Comilla, Gaya, Bettiah, Muzaffarpur, Colgong and Ranchi.

The largest percentages occurred in Daudnagar (118·3) which was named in the first list and in Sirajganj (111·4). In four towns, Howrah, Kotrung, Jainagar and Satkhira, the percentage has exceeded 100 for two years consecutively. In the great and important municipality of Howrah the steady progress achieved in the last four years is deserving of high praise. At the end of 1898-99, the outstanding balance was Rs. 2,35,185 or 50·9 per cent. of the current demand: it has now been reduced to Rs. 91,322 or 16·9 per cent. During the same period the current demand has risen from Rs. 4,62,307 to Rs. 5,40,855. The outstanding balance is even now very large, but the percentage is below the Divisional average, and the Lieutenant-Governor has no doubt that Mr. LeMesurier will still further reduce it. In the Patna Municipality, in spite of the difficulties occasioned by plague, a high standard has been maintained. The Cuttack Municipality had the unenviable distinction of the lowest percentage of collection (73·19) while Purulia, in proportion to its income, had the largest outstanding balance of any Municipality in the Province.

6. Number of rate-payers.—The total recorded number of the rate-payers in the 157 towns whose statistics are dealt with was 485,617, representing 17·08 per cent. of the Municipal population. These figures, in comparison with those of the previous year, show a decline of 2,150, which, however, is only apparent, and is due to the fact that the figures returned in 1901-1902 from the towns of Ghatal, in the Burdwan, and of Chapra, in the Patna Division, incorrectly showed the number of rate-payers as 5,929 in excess of the real number. The percentage of rate-payers to population varies, as in the previous year, between 18·7 in the Presidency Division and 14·8 in the Dacca Division. In the Resolutions of the last two years, unfavourable mention was made of five Municipalities, forming the head-quarters stations of districts, in which the percentage of rate-payers to population was unduly low. Of these, Cuttack now returns an increase of its rate-payers from 5,730 to 6,717, which was due to a revision of the assessment of the town, while elsewhere there was a slight rise in the percentage, except at Dacca, where the figures showed a further decline. As regards the decrease in the number of rate-payers in the Municipalities of Chandpur and Brahmanbaria, the Commissioner of Chittagong writes:—

"The decrease in both cases is really due to lax Municipal administration; both places are increasing in importance, and any falling off due to departures or loss of income would be more than compensated by the assessment of new-comers, if the Municipal authorities took pains to discover them."

The neglect to assess new comers, and even new buildings, is not by any means confined to these Municipalities as is shown by the fact that a large increase in the number of rate payers is occasionally apparent when a general re-assessment is made. The loss of income from this defect in administration is in some places considerable, and when there is reason to believe that such is the case, arrangements should be made to go over the ground carefully and systematically. Probably the manner in which the assessments have been revised, and the want of a methodical record of the results, are to some extent responsible; but if the scheme for a trained assessing agency, to which reference is made below, is adopted, the Lieutenant Governor hopes that the difficulty of keeping the assessment up to date will be considerably lessened.

7. Results of elections held during the year.—General elections of Commissioners took place in 46 municipalities. At Chittagong the proceedings connected with the elections were declared by the Magistrate to be null and void, and a fresh election was held after the close of the year. There was a failure also in one ward of the Kishanganj and Hazaribagh Municipalities, where the vacancies were filled by appointment by Government. Elsewhere the elections were successful and were contested in 121 cases out of 194, the contests being most general in the Dacca and Rajshahi Divisions. The percentage of attendance of voters at the contested elections was highest at Dinajpur, where 83 per cent. of the electors were present.

8. Constitution of Committees and attendance at meetings.—The variations in the composition of the Municipal Committees were slight and call for no remarks. There were in all 2,620 meetings held during the year against 2,541 returned for the previous year, and of those only 227, or 8 6 per cent., had to be adjourned. Twenty-nine Municipalities held more than 20 meetings during the year; whilst 15, as against 21 in the previous year, failed to hold at least one meeting every month as required by the law. The Commissioners of the Burdwan Municipality held the largest number of meetings, 49, at each of which a quorum was present; and Debhatta, Cossipore-Chitpur and Sherpur (Mymensingh district) stand next with 37, 34 and 33 meetings respectively. The Municipalities of Sherpur in the Bogra district and Bettiah in Champaran share the distinction of holding the smallest number of meetings, 8 in each case. For the fourth year in succession the Commissioners of the North Barrackpore Municipality failed to meet once a month, although attention was drawn by the Commissioner of the Division last year to the provisions of the law on the point. The explanation given by the Magistrate is that the Commissioners are indifferent to sanitary improvements and to the objects which Local Self-Government is designed to achieve and their serious attention is once more drawn to the matter. The average percentage of attendance of Municipal Commissioners throughout the Province was 51·62; and it is a singular fact that the improvement to which reference is made above has been accompanied by a falling off in the attendance at Municipal meetings, for in 1897-98 the average attendence was 53·7. In 80 Municipalities, as compared with 91 and 108 respectively in the two previous years, an average of more than one-half of the total number of Commissioners attended at each meeting. The highest percentages of attendance were at Kamarhati (86 per cent.), Garulia (83 per cent.), Jagdispur (75 per cent.) and Chapra (72 per cent.), while the lowest, 27 per cent., occurred at Faridpur, a record which reflects little credit on a town which is the headquarters of a district.

9. Assessment and taxation.—The rate on holdings was assessed at less than the maximum rate allowed by the law in 13 towns, among which were the Municipalities of Howrah, Hooghly and Chinsura, Darjeeling and Patna; the lowest rate was 6 per cent. and this was levied at Sahebganj, where, however, it had been only 5 per cent. in the previous year. Although want of funds is impeding the execution of urgent sanitary reforms in the Hooghly and Chinsura Municipality, the Commissioners have so far failed to resort to the obvious remedy of raising the rate from 6¼ per cent. at which it is now levied. On the other hand, it is satisfactory to note that the Commissioners of the Krishnagar Municipality have at last recognised the necessity for raising the rate to the legal maximum. At Chandpur the Commissioners substituted the rate on holdings for the tax on persons which was previously in force in the town, a measure which yielded an increased revenue of Rs. 3,627 during the year. The proposal of the Commissioners of the Purulia Municipality to impose a rate on holdings in lieu of the tax on persons received the sanction of Government during the year, and it will come into effect from the year 1903-04. Of the special rates the latrine rate was levied in 104 towns, the water-rate in 10 towns and the lighting rate in 2 towns, viz., Howrah and Darjeeling.

10. Revision of assessment.—A revision of assessment general or partial came into force in several Municipalities, the best financial results being attained in the following towns:—

Name of Municipality.	Amount of increase.	Name of Municipality.	Amount of increase.
Howrah	44,261	South Suburban ...	3,800
Gaya	16,631	Garulia	3,334
Serampore ...	5,130	Cossipore-Chitpur ..	2,751
Chandpur	4,867	South Barrackpore ...	2,347
Berhampore	4,006	Baranagar	2,340

At Rangpur there was a falling off of Rs. 1,137 due to remissions allowed by the Commissioners. A revision of assessment in the Cuttack Municipality came into force during the year, and the Commissioner of the Division reports that a competent salaried assessor, who was employed for the purpose, effected an increase of Rs. 14,300 in the demand for the tax on holdings, and of Rs. 4,700 in that of the latrine-tax. A very large number of petitions of objection was filed, nearly all of which were allowed by the Appeals Committee, and the reductions were made on so lavishly liberal a scale that the assessor's work has been rendered practically abortive. This result coupled with the circumstances mentioned in paragraph 5 above suggests the conclusion that the administration of this Municipality is not all that it should be. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division brings to notice with regret the obstructive spirit displayed by the Municipal Commissioners of Chittagong, in frustrating the efforts of the Chairman to remedy the low and unfair assessments of the town. It is, however, satisfactory to note that they subsequently resolved to appoint a paid assessor, a proposal which has recently been sanctioned by Government.

11. The general question of improving the procedure under which assessments are conducted has separately engaged the attention of the Lieutenant-Governor and the outlines of a scheme have been formulated upon which the opinions of local officers and of Municipal Commissioners have been invited. The chief proposal is that a trained staff of permanent assessors should be formed in the Province, to be paid for by pro rata contributions from each Municipality, and that they should deal in rotation with all the Municipalities included in the scheme. It is also suggested that the Appellate Committee should be limited to five, including the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, and that the other three members should not sit when appeals from their own wards are under consideration, their places being filled by other Commissioners on these occasions. Bad assessments are responsible for many of the complaints that are brought against Municipal administration, and it is hoped that the procedure suggested will effect an improvement in this respect. The motive of the Lieutenant-Governor in launching this scheme is not so much the raising of additional taxation, as the equalising of the burden so that the well-to-do shall bear their fair share instead of shifting it—as is sometimes the case—on to the weary shoulders of their poorer fellow townsmen.

12. Fresh imposts levied during the year.—The tax on animals and vehicles under section 86(a) of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, was introduced in the Giridih Municipality, and a fee on the registration of carts was for the first time levied in that town. The latter impost was also introduced at Daltonganj. Fees under the Hackney Carriage Act were newly levied in the Tangail Municipality, and a small revenue was realised in Barh from the introduction of Part X of the Municipal Act. License fees under section 261 of the Act for carrying on offensive and dangerous trades were levied for the first time in the Municipalities of Dinajpur, Rangpur, Jhalakati and Puri. Fees for the cleansing of private privies were imposed in the Municipality of Chandpur and in portions of the Dinapore Municipality.

13. The total funds available for expenditure in the whole Province were Rs. 55,83,623, against Rs. 51,62,352 in the previous year. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 47,53,072, against Rs. 45,56,164 in 1901-1902.

14. Closing balances of Municipalities.—The aggregate closing balances of the municipalities stood at Rs. 8,30,551 against Rs. 6,06,188 in the preceding year. The increase of Rs 2,24,363 was due mainly to the inability of the Howrah Municipality to utilise during the year the large amount of loan funds received from Government (Rs. 1,93,000) so that the closing balance of the Municipality stood at Rs. 2,14,308, against Rs. 14,386 in 1901-1902. Failure to fully utilise loan funds or contributions, accumulation of funds for carrying out schemes of municipal reform, savings effected in estimated expenditure, or improved collections variously account for the large closing balances, wherever they occurred, of other municipalities. On the other hand, the working balances were unduly reduced in several cases, falling as low as Rs. 28 in the case of Titaghar, a depletion which must have caused considerable inconvenience in meeting working expenses at the beginning of the current year.

15. The incomes of all the Municipalities taken together amounted to a little over 49½ lakhs. This represented an increase of nearly 4 lakhs over the figure of the preceding year, but practically the whole difference was accounted for by receipts from loans, sale proceeds of Government securities, &c., advances and deposits. There was however an increase of nearly half a lakh from taxes, although this was more than counterbalanced by decreases under the heads of "ferries" and "miscellaneous."

16. This increase was shared by the Municipalities, taken as a whole, in the five Divisions of Burdwan, the Presidency, Chittagong, Patna and Chota Nagpur, while in the other Divisional groups there was a decline. However as already stated in the past five years the income from taxation has risen from Rs. 25,19,448 to Rs. 32,05,679, which gives an annual average increase of Rs. 1,37,246.

17. Tax on houses and lands.—This tax yielded a revenue of Rs. 11,99,898 which was larger by Rs. 3,344 than that of the previous year. This rate was levied at Chandpur for the first time and yielded Rs. 7,385 as compared with Rs. 3,805 collected in 1901-1902 from the tax on persons. There were increases of Rs. 2,753 at Chapra, Rs. 2,786 at Gaya and Rs. 1,590 at Puri. At Chapra the improvement was due to better collections under the system of commission, and in the other two towns it was owing to the assessment of new and improved holdings. The collection of large arrears in the previous year accounts for the decrease of Rs. 5,627 at Muzaffarpur and of Rs. 2,602 at Chittagong. The income from this source declined also in the Municipalities of Burdwan (Rs. 3,229), Hooghly and Chinsura (Rs. 3,023), Monghyr (Rs. 3,817) and Bhagalpur (Rs. 2,737), and the fall was attributed variously to the loss of bills by fire at Burdwan; to the interruption caused by a revision of assessment and audit of accounts at Hooghly and Chinsura; to the prevalence of plague at Monghyr; and to the introduction of a change in the system of collection at Bhagalpur.

18. Tax on animals and vehicles.—The income of Rs. 2,48,873 under this head showed an increase of Rs. 6,434, which was shared among others by the Municipalities of Berhampore (Rs. 1,225), Bhagalpur (Rs. 1,416) and Balasore (Rs. 1,283). A stricter enforcement of the law combined with better collections contributed to the increase. A decrease of Rs. 1,068 at Monghyr is attributed to an exodus of the inhabitants of that town, with their carriages and horses, due to the prevalence of plague. The revenue derived from this source by the Baraset Municipality, which amounted to Rs. 6,129, again exceeded the income from the tax on persons. The fairness of this arrangement was questioned in the last Resolution of Government, and, it is reported that a large number of carts kept in rural areas in the vicinity pass regularly through the Municipality on their way to Calcutta and that a larger number of these carts is registered at Baraset than in the other Municipalities lying further south on the road to Calcutta. It is, however, also reported that the tax on persons levied in the town is susceptible of considerable increase and that this matter will receive the careful attention of the Commissioners at the next revision of assessment.

19. Tax on professions and trades (Rs. 57,025).—The aggregate revenue from this source shows a small falling off of Rs. 336. There was a slight increase in the Burdwan, Presidency and Rajshahi Divisions, while elsewhere there was a decline. Twenty-four Municipalities derived no income from this source.

20. Tolls on roads and at ferries.—No tolls are levied on roads in Bengal, but 48 Municipalities derived from ferry tolls a total income of Rs. 1,35,460. The revenue under this head shows a decline of Rs. 16,352, which was shared by all the Divisions except those of the Presidency, Burdwan and Chota Nagpur, where there was a small improvement. The largest decrease occurred in the Municipalities of Patna (Rs. 6,418), Bhagalpur (Rs. 6,075), Dacca Rs. (4,030), and Cuttack Rs. (3,218), while the Narayanganj, Daudnagar and Murshidabad Municipalities return comparatively large increases of revenue amounting respectively to Rs. 1,799, Rs. 1,663 and Rs. 1,336. The decrease at Patna and Dacca was more apparent than real, being due mainly to realisations of rent in advance during the previous year. At Bhagalpur the Barari ferry was farmed out at a reduced rate owing to the opening of a railway ferry, but Government made good the loss of the year by a grant of Rs. 5,000. At Cuttack there was a real loss of revenue owing to the extension of railway traffic.

21. Water-rate.—This rate, as in the previous year, was in force in 10 Municipalities. The income amounted to Rs. 2,59,348 and shows a small increase of Rs. 1,223. The largest increase, amounting to Rs. 4,700, occurred at Howrah, and four other Municipalities show an improvement. A decline of Rs. 1,364 at Burdwan was due to the remission of arrear demands which were unrealisable owing to the loss of bills by fire, and an apparent falling off of Rs. 2,124 at Arrah is due to the fact that the income of the previous year had been swelled by the realisation of arrears.

22. Lighting-rate.—The total receipts from this source which, as already stated, accrued only in the Municipalities of Howrah and Darjeeling, amounted to Rs. 85,845 and resulted in a small net decline of Rs. 363. The income improved by Rs. 4,775 at Howrah owing mainly to the extension of the area lighted with gas; in Darjeeling it declined by Rs. 5,138 and the loss is explained to be due to the falling off of miscellaneous lighting-rate receipts.

23. Conservancy, including scavenging and latrine rates.—The revenue under this head, which amounted to Rs. 7,75,743, shows an improvement of Rs. 30,587. The increase occurred mainly in the Municipalities of Gaya (Rs. 16,631), Bally (Rs. 4,368), South Suburban (Rs. 3,774), Dinapore (Rs. 2,863), North Barrackpore (Rs. 2,405), Baranagar (Rs. 1,774), Comilla (Rs. 1,329), Shahebganj (Rs. 1,262), Garulia (Rs. 1,247), and Chandpur (Rs. 1,240), and is attributed to the extension of the provisions of Part IX of the Act or to the expansion of the areas under the operation of that Part, and to revision of assessment and raising of the rate at which the tax was levied. The large decrease of Rs. 4,205 at Muzaffarpur was only apparent, and is accounted for by the activity displayed in the collection of arrears in the previous year. The decline of Rs. 1,629 in the Municipality of Burdwan is not explained.

Several Municipalities continued their efforts in the direction of making their trenching grounds a source of income; improved results are reported from some quarters, but no marked success was obtained.

24. Tax on persons according to their circumstances and property within the Municipality.—The total revenue from this source amounted to Rs. 5,78,947 and shows a small improvement of Rs. 8,315. The increase, which was shared by several Municipalities and is attributable to improved assessments, was largest at Sirajganj (Rs. 3,080), Garulia (Rs. 1,647), Dinajpur (Rs. 1,293), and Bettiah (Rs. 1,185). There was a decline of Rs. 1,587 at Arrah which is explained to be due to short collections, a matter which is the subject of a special enquiry.

the Municipalities of Dinajpur, Rangpur, Jhalakati and Puri. Fees for the cleansing of private privies were imposed in the Municipality of Chandpur and in portions of the Dinapore Municipality.

13. The total funds available for expenditure in the whole Province were Rs. 55,83,623, against Rs. 51,62,352 in the previous year. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 47,53,072, against Rs. 45,56,164 in 1901-1902.

14. Closing balances of Municipalities.—The aggregate closing balances of the municipalities stood at Rs. 8,30,551 against Rs. 6,06,188 in the preceding year. The increase of Rs 2,24,363 was due mainly to the inability of the Howrah Municipality to utilise during the year the large amount of loan funds received from Government (Rs. 1,93,000) so that the closing balance of the Municipality stood at Rs. 2,14,308, against Rs. 14,386 in 1901-1902. Failure to fully utilise loan funds or contributions, accumulation of funds for carrying out schemes of municipal reform, savings effected in estimated expenditure, or improved collections variously account for the large closing balances, wherever they occurred, of other municipalities. On the other hand, the working balances were unduly reduced in several cases, falling as low as Rs. 28 in the case of Titaghar, a depletion which must have caused considerable inconvenience in meeting working expenses at the beginning of the current year.

15. The incomes of all the Municipalities taken together amounted to a little over 49½ lakhs. This represented an increase of nearly 4 lakhs over the figure of the preceding year, but practically the whole difference was accounted for by receipts from loans, sale proceeds of Government securities, &c., advances and deposits. There was however an increase of nearly half a lakh from taxes, although this was more than counterbalanced by decreases under the heads of "ferries" and "miscellaneous."

16. This increase was shared by the Municipalities, taken as a whole, in the five Divisions of Burdwan, the Presidency, Chittagong, Patna and Chota Nagpur, while in the other Divisional groups there was a decline. However as already stated in the past five years the income from taxation has risen from Rs. 25,19,448 to Rs. 32,05,679, which gives an annual average increase of Rs. 1,37,246.

17. Tax on houses and lands.—This tax yielded a revenue of Rs. 11,99,898 which was larger by Rs. 3,344 than that of the previous year. The income from this source declined also in the Municipalities of Burdwan (Rs. 3,229), Hooghly and Chinsura (Rs. 3,023), Monghyr (Rs. 3,817) and Bhagalpur (Rs. 2,737), and the fall was attributed variously to the loss of bills by fire at Burdwan; to the interruption caused by a revision of assessment and audit of accounts at Hooghly and Chinsura; to the prevalence of plague at Monghyr; and to the introduction of a change in the system of collection at Bhagalpur.

18. Tax on animals and vehicles.—The income of Rs. 2,48,873 under this head showed an increase of Rs. 6,434, which was shared among others by the Municipalities of Berhampore (Rs. 1,225), Bhagalpur (Rs. 1,416) and Balasore (Rs. 1,283). 20. Tolls on roads and at ferries.—No tolls are levied on roads in Bengal, but 48 Municipalities derived from ferry tolls a total income of Rs. 1,35,460. The large decrease of Rs. 4,205 at Muzaffarpur was only apparent, and is accounted for by the activity displayed in the collection of arrears in the previous year. The decline of Rs. 1,629 in the Municipality of Burdwan is not explained.

Several Municipalities continued their efforts in the direction of making their trenching grounds a source of income; improved results are reported from some quarters, but no marked success was obtained.

24. Tax on persons according to their circumstances and property within the Municipality.—The total revenue from this source amounted to Rs. 5,78,947 and shows a small improvement of Rs. 8,315. There was a decline of Rs. 1,587 at Arrah which is explained to be due to short collections, a matter which is the subject of a special enquiry.

25. Grants from Provincial and Local Funds and contributions by private individuals.—The total receipts amounted to Rs. 3,24,583, showing an increase of Rs. 9,797. The contributions were—for medical purposes Rs. 2,21,074, for education Rs. 6,597, and for general purposes Rs. 96,912.

26. Gifts of money or land and works of public utility executed by private individuals.—Of the various instances of private liberality brought to notice in the Commissioners' Reports, which will be more fully dealt with in a separate Resolution, the following deserve special mention. A contribution of Rs. 10,000 was made by Babu Chhogmull Sukhani of Darjeeling towards the construction of a new building for the Charitable Dispensary, which has been styled the "Victoria Memorial Hospital" and which has been opened by the Lieutenant-Governor since the close of the year. Babu Harendra Lal Rai Choudhuri of Bhagyakul in the Dacca district contributed Rs. 24,000 for the construction of an out-door dispensary attached to the Mitford Hospital at Dacca; and Syed Asgar Hossain Khan alias Khursed Nawab gave Rs. 10,000 towards the construction of the new Hospital building at Patna.

27. Expenditure.—The total expenditure in the Municipalities of the province (exclusive of Calcutta), amounted during the year to Rs. 47,53,072, against Rs. 45,56,164 in 1901-1902, the result being an increase of Rs. 1,96,908. The percentages which the expenditure under each of the principal heads bore to the total outlay (apart from debt and suspense heads) varied little from those of previous years. Establishment charges slightly increased, and the percentage of expenditure on conservancy fell from 31·3 to 30·8, while that on Public Works rose from 16·5 to 18·2.

28. The above mentioned increase of nearly 2 lakhs over the figure of the preceding year was attributable mainly to the larger expenditure incurred on water-supply (Rs. 1,13,717), buildings (Rs. 59,802), roads (Rs. 23,284), hospitals and dispensaries (Rs. 20,472) and police (Rs. 14,692). "Investments" and "deposits" also account for a rise of Rs. 40,925 and Rs. 73,002 respectively, or a total increase of Rs. 1,13,927.

On the other hand, there was a falling off under the heads of "Conservancy (including road cleaning and watering)" and "Miscellaneous" of Rs. 11,441 and Rs. 99,239 respectively. The items "Repayment of loans" and "Advances" also show an aggregate decline of Rs. 37,362.

29. Office and Collection Establishment.—Expenditure under this head, which rose during the year from Rs. 4,05,552 to Rs. 4,17,134, shows the usual tendency to increase which it is the business of controlling officers to scrutinise with a jealous eye. In some cases the growth is due to the payment of incremental salaries, in others to the entertainment of a larger staff or of a paid assessor, or to the increase of the charges on account of audit and banking. The expenditure on this account varies from 11·5 per cent. of the total expenditure in Chota Nagpur to 5·6 per cent. in Orissa.

30. Prevention of fire.—The expenditure under this head rose from Rs. 22,791 to Rs. 27,353. As in the previous years the bulk of the expenditure was incurred in the Municipalities of Cossipore-Chitpur (Rs 15,590) and Howrah (Rs. 5,459) and in the other Municipalities adjoining Calcutta which contribute to the cost of the Metropolitan Fire-Brigade.

31. Street lighting.—The total expenditure, which amounted to Rs. 2,39,449, shows a decline of Rs. 5,367, which is more than accounted for by the decreased charges of Rs. 10,142 at Howrah and Rs. 4,565 at Darjeeling. The decrease at Howrah was nominal, being mainly due to the non-presentation by the Gas Company of bills for payment. Darjeeling incurred a smaller expenditure on the purchase of stores during the year. A proposal has been made at Howrah to erect a Kitson lamp of 1,000 candle power in one of the busiest parts of the town in order to guide the traffic at night.

32. Water-supply.—The expenditure under this head rose from Rs. 2,49,351 to Rs. 3,63,068. The difference was wholly accounted for under capital outlay, the maintenance charges having declined by Rs. 13,689. The increase in capital expenditure was shared by the Municipalities of Burdwan (Rs. 3,452), Howrah (Rs. 4,316), Garden Reach (Rs. 36,762), Darjeeling (Rs. 79,752) and Kurseong (Rs. 4,271). At Burdwan the enhancement was due to the construction of two new filters and at Howrah to the laying of 6,500 feet of additional pipes. The heavy expenditure at Garden Reach was incurred in the extension of the filtered water-supply from the Calcutta mains; 54 hydrants were erected and about 50,000 gallons of pure water are now supplied daily within the Municipality. The progress of the new water-supply scheme, which has not yet been completed, accounts for the heavy outlay at Darjeeling. At Kurseong connections were made with two new springs and iron mains were substituted for the previously existing temporary bamboo pipes; the whole system is reported to have been brought into satisfactory working order.

A project for improving their water-supply by the construction of a weir across the river Gandheswary at Bankura engaged the attention of the Municipal Commissioners of that town and expert opinion was called for. At Maniktala a large scheme for the extension of the filtered water-supply has received the sanction of Government, and the Commissioners have borrowed a lakh of rupees from Government in order to carry out the project.

A reference was made in paragraph 31 of last year's review to a proposal to supply water to certain Municipalities from the mills situated within their limits. By a mutual arrangement the mills supply the water and the Municipalities the pipes and hydrants, and the work has already made excellent progress. The Titagarh project has been sanctioned by Government and a loan of Rs. 13,000 has been granted for the purpose of carrying it out. The scheme for Bhatpara has been passed by the Commissioners; and a similar scheme for Garulia, with an application for a loan of Rs. 5,000 to meet the cost of laying the mains and hydrants, has recently received the sanction of Government.

At Berhampore the water-works fell into difficulties during the year. The buildings suffered severely from the sinking of the site, and the river at the same time receded, causing a small chur to form in front of the engine-house. These incidents necessitated a heavy expenditure in the purchase of extra machinery and in the repair of the buildings, in aid of which Government has sanctioned a grant of Rs. 5,000 and a loan of Rs. 10,000.

The Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to learn from the Divisional reports that considerable activity was displayed by many Municipalities in improving their sources of water-supply. He has, however, had occasion to view with concern the administration by some of the larger towns of their Municipal water-works. There are seven towns in the Province (exclusive of Calcutta) which have water-works of their own, viz., Howrah, Burdwan, Berhampore, Dacca, Nasirabad (Mymensingh), Arrah and Bhagalpur; of these the aggregate maintenance charges, in the year under review, amounted to Rs. 1,32,911, varying in individual Municipalitites between Rs. 51,843 in Howrah and Rs. 4,180 in Arrah. The management of their water-works is undoubtedly one of the chief difficulties which Municipal Commissioners have to face, for it is a matter requiring technical knowledge which few of the Commissioners themselves possess. The consequence is that the supervision which they exercise is of little practical value, and neglect of the mechinery and filters and abnormal waste of coal are faults that are constantly brought to the notice of Government. The Municipalities which have received the least favourable notice on account of their water-works administration are Burdwan and Bhagalpur, and His Honour has already impressed upon them the vital necessity of immediate reform. Comparison between the working results of each of the several installations is unfortunately vitiated by the fact that inspections are not made annually, and that detailed information of the results of the year under review is consequently not in every case available. Such statistics however as are at hand reveal remarkable variations; the cost per 1,000 gallons, for instance, varies between 4·5 annas in Nasirabad and 1·8 in Howrah and Burdwan. Again the expenditure on coal for every 1,000 gallons of water delivered, is as high as 1·3 annas in Nasirabad and as low as ·44 anna in Howrah. These variations are probably capable of explanation, but the Lieutenant-Governor has no material before him for the purpose. In future reports His Honour would be glad to receive more detailed information of the working of this important branch of Municipal administration.

33. Drainage.—The total expenditure, which amounted to Rs. 1,71,367, shows a small decrease of Rs. 784 on that of the previous year. Maintenance charges declined by Rs. 11,001, while capital expenditure rose by Rs. 10,217. The increase in the latter item occurred mainly in the Municipalities of Howrah (Rs. 3,736), Dinajpur (Rs. 5,059) and Monghyr (Rs. 9,959), while the decrease was largest at Krishnagar (Rs. 8,659) and Patna (Rs. 8,235). The increased charges at Dinajpur and Monghyr were due to the construction of large masonry drains. At Krishnagar the decline was due to the fact that a costly scheme had been completed in 1901-02, and a similar cause operated at Patna, where the payment of outstanding bills connected with the execution of the scheme for the flushing of the drains had considerably swelled the charges of the previous year. Systematic steps are being taken under the direct control of the Magistrate for the preparation of suitable schemes for the improvement of the drainage of the municipalities in the Nadia district. Large schemes of drainage are under consideration or in course of preparation in the Cossipore-Chitpur, Maniktala, Baranagar, Garden Reach, Bhatpara, Budge-Budge, and Titagar Municipalities, and smaller schemes are similarly under consideration in several other Municipalities in the district of the 24-Parganas. A scheme for the improvement of the drainage of the unhealthiest portion of the Berhampore Municipality, estimated to cost Rs. 30,000 to be met from the Government Estates Improvement Fund, is at present under consideration. The town of Dacca is being surveyed as a preliminary to the preparation of a complete drainage scheme. It is reported that the drainage of the town of Gaya is gradually being improved by means of an annual subsidy of Rs. 3,000 from the Lodging-house Fund, but there is as yet no regular and complete scheme for the town. A comprehensive scheme was prepared by the Commissioners of the Howrah Municipality for the improvement of the drainage of a portion of the town, and the Commissioners obtained a loan of Rs. 75,000 from Government for carrying it out. Four Municipalities incurred no expenditure under this head, viz., those of Ghatal, Dinapore, Hajipur and Raghunathpur.

34. Conservancy, including road cleaning, road watering and latrines.—The expenditure under this head fell from Rs. 12,68,329 to Rs. 12,56,888. The decline was shared by the Municipalities as a whole in the Burdwan, Patna and Orissa Divisions and was largest in the two first named, where it amounted to Rs. 14,750 and Rs. 17,449 respectively. Elsewhere the charges increased, the improvement being most marked in the Presidency, Chittagong and Bhagalpur Divisions. It is noticeable that the expenditure on conservancy exceeded 50 per cent. of the total expenditure in five towns, viz., Asansol (50·54), Hooghly-Chinsura (50·83), Bhadreswar (54·08), Baranagar (50·2) and Noakhali (59·2).

The large decline of Rs. 12,288 at Howrah, where the construction of bacteriological filters and the purchase of sullage carts had raised the expenditure in the previous year, was mainly responsible for the decline in the Burdwan Division. A decrease of Rs. 17,585 occurred in the Patna Municipality owing to the diminution of charges incurred in sanitary precautions against plague, to which is mainly attributable the decline in the Patna Division. At Dacca there was a decrease of Rs. 2,654 chiefly due to savings in the cost of the feed of cattle; in that Municipality about 190 privies were constructed on the separation system, and the filters there erected for the purification of cess-pool water are reported to be working satisfactorily. At Gaya an increase of Rs. 5,056 occurred, which was mainly due to the purchase of more conservancy carts and to the erection of new latrines. An increase of Rs. 3,779 at Monghyr is accounted for by the purchase of new carts and the cleaning of roads and jungles. At Cuttack the non-payment during the year of certain outstanding bills resulted in a decline of Rs. 2,345.

The Muzaffarpur Municipality obtained the sanction of Government to the construction of a septic tank for the disposal of sewage, the funds for the purpose being provided by means of a loan from Government. The Commissioner has, however, made no mention of the progress of the scheme. Similar projects for the construction of septic tanks on the principles which have proved successful in several large mills are being formulated by the Garden Reach and Cossipore-Chitpur Municipalities in consultation with the Sanitary Engineer. Among other new schemes one of the most important is the improvement of an insanitary bustee of mill coolies at Bhatpara which was undertaken during the year and is now nearing completion. Five straight roads have been driven through a tract which was formerly a foetid congeries of hollows, huts and cess-pits. The area has been drained and supplied with water, the roads have been metalled and the unwholesome tanks have been filled with coal ashes; at the same time regular lines of spacious and well ventilated huts have been laid out along the roads. The immediate result of these improvements has been that, for the first time for many years, the inhabitants enjoyed complete immunity from cholera in the past year. The Commissioners of the Cossipore-Chitpur, Garulia and Titaghar Municipalities are taking similar action in respect of certain bustees in those Municipalities, and it is reported that the bustee taken up in the first named Municipality is already beginning to wear a different aspect Nearly one-third of the whole Municipal expenditure is devoted to conservancy, and the problems to be dealt with increase, not only in magnitude but in complexity, with the size of the Municipalty. Among them may be mentioned:—Should the sewage be removed direct by carts or from depôts? Should a light tramway be used? What is the best form of cart? How is the cart to be got beyond the edge of the trenching-ground in the rainy season? Can all the waste fluid from the houses be removed by carts and, if not, how is that which must be removed to be separated? If the bye-laws as to suitable private latrines are to be enforced, what suitable structure can a poor rate-payer afford? How are the upper-story privies to be dealt with? How are the sweepers to be supervised and controlled? These and similar problems are being separately and independently struggled with in different parts of the Province, and one great difficulty experienced by those engaged in the work is that they have little knowledge of the methods adopted and the success attained in other places. In this connection the Lieutenant Governor considers that the Sanitary Commissioner might render most valuable assistance, and His Honour desires that that officer will give special attention to this part of his duty, and endeavour to secure that useful experience gained in one Municipality may be turned to account in other Municipalities where the same difficulties have to be overcome.

35. Hospitals and Dispensaries.—The expenditure under this head rose from Rs. 4,48,847 to Rs. 4,69,319. A comparison with past years is, however, vitiated by the fact that a uniform procedure is not followed in the adjustment of charges incurred on plague, which are in some cases included under Hospitals and Dispensaries" and in others shown separately. The Lieutenant-Governor desires that in future all charges on account of plague shall be shown in a separate column headed "Charges on account of plague" subordinate to "9—Miscellaneous" in Form III, which new column will stand between the columns headed "Provident Fund" and "Miscellaneous." The increase in expenditure on hospitals and dispensaries was largest in the Rajshahi Division, where it amounted to Rs. 24,909; while on the other hand the greatest decreases occurred in the Presidency Division (Rs. 12,810) and in the Patna Division (Rs. 12.400). In the Rajshahi Division the enhancement was mainly due to the construction of new dispensary buildings at Rampur Boalia, Jalpaiguri and Sirajganj. In the Presidency Division the decline is attributed principally to the discontinuance of contributions towards the cost of general preventive measures against plague. In the Patna Division the Municipalities of Patna and Gaya are chiefly responsible for the diminution. In the former Municipality the falling off was largely due to the non-payment of certain outstanding bills and to the separation of charges for the veterinary dispensary. Moreover the Commissioners found it necessary, having regard to the growing demands of the Bankipore Hospital, for which a fine building has been erected at a total cost of Rs. 99,388, to effect certain economies in the matter of the admission of in-patients. At Gaya the reduction of plague charges during the year, and the fact that certain works of improvement have been completed in the previous year, were responsible for the diminished expenditure. Six Municipalities spent no part of their income on hospitals and dispensaries.

36. Vaccination.—The total expenditure under this head was Rs. 21,548, against Rs. 21,523 in the previous year. At Darjeeling the vaccinator performed as many as 2,750 operations, and at Rampur Boalia and Bhagalpur the outturn of each operator exceeded 1,400. The Magistrate of the 24-Parganas reports that special attention is being paid to the requirements of Municipalities in which mill operatives congregate.

37. Public works.—The expenditure under this head rose from Rs. 6,69,533 to Rs. 7,45,848, or by Rs. 76,315. The increase occurred under the sub-heads of "Buildings" (Rs. 59,802) and "Roads" (Rs. 23,284), whilst there was a decline under "Establishment" and "Stores."

38. Public Instruction.—The expenditure under this head amounted to Rs. 1,37,407, or Rs. 5,067 in excess of that of the previous year. The expenditure on primary education rose from Rs. 67,090 to Rs. 74,015, an amount which represents 2·7 per cent. of the aggregate ordinary income of Municipalities, and which still falls short of the standard of 3·2 per cent. prescribed by Government. However, it is evident from the Commissioners' reports that proper attention is being paid to the necessity for making suitable provision for primary education as funds permit. The practice of having the sanctioned municipal grants for primary education distributed according to the instructions of the Deputy Inspector of Schools continues, and this has suppressed to a great extent irregularities in the matter of distribution. In the 24-Parganas an Inspecting pandit on special pay had been appointed in 1901-1902 to ensure proper supervision over the primary and girls' schools in certain municipalities in the district. The scheme was attended with satisfactory results, and a proposal to extend it by appointing another Inspecting pandit for other important municipalities in the district has been placed before the Municipal Commissioners for acceptance. Mr. Stevenson-Moore states that most of the municipalities concerned have expressed their willingness to co-operate, and that on receipt of replies from the rest a revised scheme of primary school inspection will be introduced. The establishment of technical municipal schools, affiliated to the mills, is a development, which, it is hoped, will assume a practical shape during the current year.

39. Loans.—Nine Municipalities obtained loans from Government aggregating Rs. 3,60,600. These were Howrah (Rs. 1,93,000), Maniktala (Rs. 75,000, being the first instalment of a loan of one lakh), Garden Reach (Rs. 45,000), Berhampore (Rs 15,600), Nasirabad (Rs. 12,500), Muzaffarpur (Rs. 10,000), Sherpur in Mymensingh (Rs. 4,000), Kurseong (Rs. 3,000) and South Barrackpore (Rs. 2,500). The majority of tha loans were taken for projects for the improvement of water-supply and drainage. There was no instance of default in repayment, whether of principal or interest, and there is no occasion to question the solvency of any of the Municipalities which are thus in debt to Government.

40. Audit of accounts and embezzlements.—A smaller number of cases of embezzlements was brought to notice during the year than in 1901-1902. The largest defalcation reported was one that occured at Bhagalpur, where a tahsildar embezzled a sum of Rs. 1,492. At Sirajganj a defalcation occurred in which the whole office staff are said to have been implicated. Minor cases are reported from Howrah, Patuakhali, Sassaram and Chapra.

41. Working of the Porters and Dandiwallas Act 1883.—Bengal Act V of 1883 for the control of Porters and Dandiwallas was in force only in the Municipality of Darjeeling. The total number of porters and dandiwallas registered during the year was 858 against 843 in the previous year, and the total cost of working the Act was Rs. 272 against Rs. 379 in 1901-1902. There were 14 prosecutions under the Act against 12 in 1901-1902, and the amount of fines realized was Rs. 32. No occasion arose for the cancellation of licenses during the year. The Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling suggests that in view of the increasing importance of Kurseong as a hill-station the Act should be enforced there. His proposals on the subject should be submitted separately for the consideration of Government.

42. One of the chief among the problems of Municipal administration which have occupied the Lieutenant-Governor's attention during the year under review, is that of the special requirements of the town of Puri. The Municipality itself is a comparatively small one, with a resident population of some 31,000 souls, which, however, at certain periods of the year, is doubled, trebled and even quadrupled by the inrush of pilgrims to the shrine of Jagarnath. It is this constant fluctuating population that renders the Municipal administration of the town one of grave and ever-increasing difficulty, and adds enormously to the task of providing and enforcing proper means of sanitation

Towards the close of the year Mr. Bourdillon visited the town, and discussed with the local officers the methods by which improvements could best be effected. The problem falls naturally into two divisions, the one being the question of ordinary Municipal management, and the other that of the special arrangements required to provide for the periodical visit of enormous numbers of pilgrims. To solve the first portion of the problem a programme of municipal reform was outlined, comprising the purification of the sources of water-supply, and the improvement of latrines and drainage; to meet the second difficulty the heads of a separate programme were indicated, which was directed mainly to the object of securing sanitary and inexpensive accommodation for pilgrims, improved water-supply, and proper arrangements for the treatment of the sick. For the financing of the latter portion of the scheme, a special source exists in the Puri Lodging-house Fund, but the supervision of the arrangements is a task which devolves upon the Municipal Commissioners and largely increases their burdens and responsibilities. The two aspects of the question are intricately connected. Any failure in the matter of the ordinary Municipal administration of the town cannot fail to react upon the utility of the arrangements made to provide for its fluctuating population, and the converse is equally inevitable. The Lieutenant-Governor recognises that the reforms will necessitate considerable expenditure, but he is convinced of their far reaching importance to the health not only of the locality but of the whole Province and indeed of all India. His Honour is prepared to meet such requirements as the funds locally available are insufficient to provide for in a liberal spirit, subject, however, to the condition that the Municipal Commissioners and their executive officers show themselves fully conscious of the importance of the problem with which they are called upon to deal, and devote to its solution the tact, energy and perseverance by which alone any lasting reform can be effected.

43. Some special remarks are also called for regarding Howrah, both because of its metropolitan character and its close association with Calcutta, and because next to Calcutta it is the largest Municipality in the Province. The head-quarters of one of the largest railway systems and the home of many important industries, the administration of Howrah is, on a smaller scale, almost as difficult and arduous a task as that of its larger neighbour, Calcutta. In the year under review, its Municipal Commissioners were the trustees of a current income falling little short of 8 lakhs of rupees, nearly four times greater than that of any other individual mufassal Municipality, and they incurred a total expenditure, including loan transactions, of all but 6 lakhs. The water-works of Howrah are the largest in the Province outside Calcutta; its drainage system is the most complete; it is the possessor of a conservancy tramway, and a scheme is now under consideration, which may soon prove an accomplished fact, for the introduction of electric tram cars with the ultimate objective of the eventual linking of the tramway system with that of Calcutta. The Municipal well-being of Howrah is closely connected with that of Calcutta and its Commissioners have wisely provided for the development of the town on the most approved modern principles. During the whole of the year under report the question of extending to Howrah the Calcutta building regulations was under discussion, and since the close of the year their extension has been finally sanctioned by Government. The measure is one that should have a most salutary effect on the future expansion of the town, and should obviate the growth of the evil of overcrowding which presents so serious a problem in the neighbouring metropolis. The great improvement in the financial administration of this Municipality, which has already been commented upon, has rendered it possible for the Commissioners to carry out large schemes of sanitary improvement. A project for the improvement of the drainage of Wards VIII and IX was commenced during the year, and a loan was granted by Government for the purpose. Large loans were taken for the improvement of the water-works by the extension of the engine house at Serampore and the purchase of a new engine and pumping plant, and smaller loans were also obtained for the improvement of the Municipal market, for the extension of the conservancy railway, and for the acquisition of a night-soil depôt.

The progress of this Municipality is a matter which the Lieutnant-Governor notes with particular satisfaction. His Honour is confident that the Commissioners are fully conscious of the great responsibilities which devolve upon them, in meeting the ever-growing requirements of a town which manifestly has a great future before it, and he is glad to be able to congratulate them on a year's record of which they have every reason to be proud.

44. The opinions expressed by Divisional Commissioners on the working of the municipalities of the Province are on the whole commendatory, though inadequate assessments, careless supervision, and indifferent collections are noticed in several quarters. The most striking eulogy is that conferred by Mr. Stevenson-Moore upon the Municipalities, which are no less than 25 in number, lying in his district of the 24-Parganas.—"There is hardly a branch of municipal work," he remarks, "in connection with which a considerable expansion and development have not to be recorded, and there are, I am glad to say, few Municipalities which are nôt in a position to pride themselves on having taken a good step onwards." Improvement is being effected on the most enlightened lines. A pure water-supply has been or is being provided in all the Municipalities which form the suburbs of Calcutta, and the improvement of their drainage is receiving as close an attention. Moreover concerted action is being taken to ensure the construction, in these suburbs, before whom a great future lies by reason of the development of electric traction, of properly aligned roads and well-built and sanitary houses, and to prevent in future the over crowding which renders so difficult the problem which the Corporation of Calcutta are called upon to solve. In the Dacca Division, most of the Municipalities have practical working projects in hand, and Mr. Savage is able to express a hope that in course of time "the towns of Eastern Bengal will be as noted for their salubrity as not many years ago they were notorious for insalubrity." In Bihar, particularly in the towns of Patna, Chapra, Darbhanga and Monghyr, Municipal administration was much hampered during the past year by the prevalence of plague, which drained the Commissioners' resources (though in some cases they were supplemented by liberal grants from Government) and restricted their operations. They have not failed, however, to earn commendation, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that the terrible epidemic with which they have been visited will only serve to stimulate their efforts for the removal of the insanitary conditions which foster its growth. The only really jarring note is struck by the Commissioner of Orissa who stigmatises the condition of the Cuttack Municipality as lamentable. His report states that "instead of progress there was a falling back in almost all important respects," and it cites the failure to improve their assessment, to which reference has already been made, as a discreditable instance of the feebleness of the administration of the Municipal Commissioners of that town.

Such instances of retrogression are, however, exceptional, and Mr. Bourdillon is glad to be able to close his review with an expression of his satisfaction at the manner in which both the office bearers and the Commissioners of the majority of the Municipalities in the Province have performed their onerous and responsible duties. It is the fashion in some quarters to decry the work which is being done by these bodies, and to stigmatise it in sweeping terms as unsuccessful. It is inevitable that the instances of failure or maladministration which from time to time are brought to light should attract public attention, while no notice is taken of the vastly larger number of cases in which good work is quietly and unostentatiously performed. The facts and figures cited in the foregoing paragraphs, however, prove how real has been the progress along all the main lines of Municipal improvement, and give good hope of continued development in the future.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

L. P. SHIRRES,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. Rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

Δ, dew; o, overcast; p, passing temporary showers.

Bengal Government Notification No. 159, dated 3rd August 1900.
Ditto No. 18, dated 15th January 1901.
Ditto No. 19, ditto.
Ditto No. 23, ditto.

In the Notification No. 18, dated the 15th January 1901, referred to above, a new Circle, called the Burdwan Circle, was formed as a charge for an Executive Engineer with the title of Inspector of Works in the Burdwan Commissionership. Its head-quarters were fixed at Chinsura, and it was intended that the newly-appointed officer should supervise the Civil Works under the District Boards of Burdwan, Birbhum, and Bankura and the Local Works in the districts of Burdwan, Birbhum, Bankura, Hooghly, Howrah, and Midnapore. The Western Circle was also modified so as to comprise all the works in the Chota Nagpur Division as well as all the Civil Works under the District Boards of Manbhum and Palamau and the Local Works in the districts of Hazaribagh, Ranchi, Palamau, Manbhum, and Singhbhum, and it was placed in the charge of a Superintending Engineer with head-quarters at Ranchi.

2. During the past three years only a very small amount of work has been in progress in the Chota Nagpur and Burdwan Commissionerships, the cost of which for both Divisions together amounted on an average to only Rs. 9,60,000 a year, compared with an expenditure of Rs. 5,28,000 in the Bhagalpur and Rs. 9,40,000 in the Eastern Circle, which Circles are each in the charge of an Executive Engineer only. As the existing arrangement appears to be extravagant and unnecessary, it has been decided to amalgamate the Burdwan Circle (except the district of Howrah) with the Western Circle. The Superintending Engineer of the amalgamated Circle will exercise the powers of an "Inspector of Works" in respect to Civil and Local Works under the several District Boards of both those Commissionerships, with the exception of Howrah. As the work in Howrah is likely to involve the consideration of large projects more or less intimately connected with Calcutta, it has been decided that this district should be attached to the Central Circle under the Superintending Engineer of that Circle, who has his head-quarters at Calcutta.

3. In certain districts included in the Eastern and Bhagalpur Circles the District Boards having refused to undertake the execution of Imperial and Provincial Works, it was decided in 1900-1901 to place the Inspectors of Works of those Circles, as regards Imperial and Provincial Works in those districts, under the control of the Superintending Engineers, Central and Northern Circles, respectively. This arrangement has been found to unduly extend the area of superintendence of these two officers. For this and other reasons and after full enquiry and consideration of the whole case, it has been decided to make these Inspectors of Works independent of the Superintending Engineers, to give them increased powers of sanction up to Rs. 5,000 for Imperial and Provincial Works, and to place them directly under the Chief Engineer.

4. In these circumstances His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to order the following rearrangement of Public Works Circles with effect from the 1st January 1904:—

Burdwan and Chota Nagpur Commissionerships.

I.—The Burdwan Circle is abolished.

II.—The Western Circle will comprise all the works in the Chota Nagpur Public Works Division as well as Civil Works under the District Boards of Manbhum, Palamau, Burdwan, Hooghly, Birbhum, and Bankura, and Local Works in the districts of Hazaribagh, Ranchi, Singhbhum, Manbhum, Palamau. Burdwan, Hooghly, Birbhum, Bankura, and Midnapore. The head-quarters of the Circle will be at Ranchi.

Presidency and Burdwan Commissionerships.

III.—The Central Circle is modified as follows:—

This Circle will comprise all the works in the 1st and 2nd Calcutta Divisions and Civil Works under the District Board of Jessore and also the Local Works in the districts of Jessore, 24-Parganas, Nadia, Murshidabad, Khulna, and Howrah. The head-quarters of the Circle will be at Calcutta.

Rajshahi Commissionership.

IV.—The Northern Circle is modified as follows:—

This Circle will comprise all the works in the Darjeeling and Upper Rajshahi Divisions as well as Civil Works under the District Boards of Bogra and Pabna and Local Works in the districts of Jalpaiguri, Rangpur, Dinajpur, Bogra, Pabna, Rajshahi, and Darjeeling. The head-quarters of the Circle will be at Darjeeling.

Bhagalpur Commissionership.

V.—The Bhagalpur Circle is modified as follows:—

This Circle will comprise all the Imperial and Provincial works in the districts of Bhagalpur and Purnea as well as Civil Works under the District Boards of Monghyr and Malda and District Road Committee of Sonthal Parganas and Local Works in the districts of Bhagalpur, Monghyr, Purnea, Malda, and Sonthal Parganas. The head-quarters of the Circle will be at Bhagalpur.

Dacca and Chittagong Commissionerships.

VI.—The Eastern Circle is modified as follows:—

This Circle will comprise all the Imperial and Provincial works in the districts of Dacca, Mymensingh, and Chittagong and Chittagong Hill Tracts as well as Civil Works under the District Boards of Faridpur, Backergunge, Tippera, and Noakhali and Local Works in the districts of Dacca, Mymensingh, Faridpur, Backergunge, Tippera, Noakhali, and Chittagong, and Chittagong Hill Tracts. The head-quarters of the Circle will be at Dacca.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Commissioners, Burdwan, Presidency, Chota Nagpur, Bhagalpur, Rajshahi, Dacca, and Chittagong Divisions, for information and communication to the Chairmen of the District Boards concerned, to all Superintending Engineers and Inspectors of Public Works Circles, Bengal, Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Bengal, and Accountant-General, Bengal, for information, and to the Political, Judicial, General, Revenue, Financial and Municipal Departments of this Government for information and communication to the officers subordinate to those Departments, and that it be published in Part I of the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

R. G. KENNEDY,

Secretary.

NOTE.—By "Civil Works" are meant those done for the Public Works Department by the agency of the District Boards.

By "Local Works" are meant purely District Board Works carried out by the Boards.

The 2nd October 1903.

No. 129 Marine.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 9 of the Indian Petroleum Act, 1899, the Lieutenant-Governor proposes, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, to make the following rules for regulating the grant, to owners of motor cars and motor cycles, of licenses to possess and transport petrol or other dangerous petroleum for use in such motor cars or cycles.

The rules will be taken into consideration on the expiry of a month from the date of their publication in the Gazette, and the Lieutenant-Governor will be glad to consider any suggestions or observations that may be made by any person concerning them within that period.

1. Licenses for the possession and transport of petrol or other dangerous petroleum intended for use in motor cars or motor cycles will be granted, in the town of Calcutta, by the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police, and elsewhere by the District Magistrate, or such other officer as the Local Government may, from time to time, by order in writing, appoint.

2. The licenses will be granted free of charge, and will be in force for one year, at the expiry of which term they must be renewed.

3. In granting the licenses, the following conditions must be complied with:—

(1) The petrol shall not be kept, used, or transported except in iron or steel vessels so substantially constructed as not to be liable, except under circumstances of gross negligence or extraordinary accident, to be broken or become defective or insecure. Every such vessel shall be so constructed and maintained that no leakage, whether of liquid or vapour, can take place therefrom.

(2) Every such vessel, not forming part of a motor car, when used for transporting or keeping petrol, shall bear the words "Petrol highly inflammable" legibly and indelibly stamped or marked thereon, or on a metallic or enamelled label attached thereto, and shall not contain more than 2 gallons, and shall have an air space equal to $\frac{1}{10}$th of its capacity to allow for expansion of the petrol.

(3) Before repairs are done to any such vessel, that vessel shall, as far as practicable, be cleaned by the removal of all petrol and of all dangerous vapours derived from the same.

(4) The store-house or building in which the petrol is stored shall be well ventilated and constructed of uninflammable materials.

(5) Where a store-house forms part of, or is attached to, another building, and when the intervening floor or partition is of an unsubstantial or inflammable character, or has an opening therein, the whole of such building shall be deemed to be the store-house, and no portion of such store-house shall be used as a dwelling or as a place where persons assemble. A store-house shall have a separate entrance from the open air distinct from that of any dwelling or building in which persons assemble.

(6) The amount of petrol to be kept in any one store-house, whether or not upon motor cars, shall not exceed 60 gallons at any one time.

(7) The filling or replenishing of any vessel with petrol shall not be carried on, nor shall the contents of any such vessel be exposed, in the presence of fire or artificial light, except a light of such construction, position and character, as not to be liable to ignite any inflammable vapour arising from the petrol, and no fire or artificial light capable of igniting inflammable vapour shall be brought within dangerous proximity of the place where any vessel containing petrol is being kept.

(8) In the case of all petrol kept or transported for the purpose of, or in connection with, any motor car or motor cycle, (a) all due precautions shall be taken for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion and for the prevention of unauthorized persons having access to any petrol kept or transported, and to the vessels containing, or intended to contain, or having actually contained the same, and (b) every person managing or employed on or in connection with any motor car or motor cycle shall abstain from every act whatever which tends to cause fire or explosion, and which is not reasonably necessary, and shall prevent any other person from committing such act.

(9) The store-house shall be liable to inspection by any police officer not lower in rank than an Inspector of Police, or any other officer that the Local Government may depute for that purpose.

4. Except as specially provided for in the above rules, the general rules for the possession and transport of petroleum in force in the province of Bengal for the time being will apply to petrol or other form of dangerous petroleum stored or transported for use in motor cars or motor cycles.

23. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person in respect of any act done, or in good faith intended to be done, in the exercise of any power conferred by this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this measure is to preserve to India its ancient monuments, to control the traffic in antiquities, and to prevent the excavation by ignorant or unauthorised persons of sites of historic interest and value.

2. In 1898 the question of antiquarian exploration and research attracted attention, and the necessity for taking steps for the protection of monuments and relics of antiquity was impressed upon the Government of India. It was then apparent that legislation was required to enable the Government effectually to discharge their responsibilities in the matter, and a Bill was drafted on the lines of existing Acts of Parliament, modified so as to embody certain provisions which had found a place in recent legislation regarding the antiquities of Greece and Italy. This draft was circulated for the opinions of Local Governments, and the replies submitted showed that the proposals incorporated in it met with almost unanimous approval, the criticisms received being directed, for the most part, against matters of detail. The draft has since been revised; the provisions of a draft Bill prepared by the Government of Bengal have been embodied, so far as they were found suitable, and the present Bill is the result.

3. The first portion of the Bill deals with the protection of "ancient monuments," an expression which has been defined in clause 2. The measure will apply only to such of these as are from time to time expressly brought within its compass through being declared to be "protected monuments." The greater number of the more famous buildings in India are already in the possession or under the control of the Government; but there are others worthy of preservation which are in the hands of private owners. Some of these have already been injured or are fast falling into decay. The preservation of these is the chief object of the clauses of the Bill now referred to, and the provisions of the Bill are in general accordance with the policy enunciated in section 23 of the Religious Endowments Act, 1863 (XX of 1863), which recognises and saves the right of the Government "to prevent injury to, and preserve, buildings remarkable for their antiquity and for their historical or architectural value, or required for the convenience of the public." The power to intervene is at present limited to cases to which section 3 of Bengal Regulation XIX of 1810 or section 3 of Madras Regulation VII of 1817 applies. In framing the present Bill, the Government have aimed at enlisting the interest and good-will and securing the co-operation of the owners concerned, and it is hoped that the line of action which it is proposed to take may tend rather to the encouragement than to the suppression of private effort. The Bill provides that the owner or manager of a building which merits greater care than it has been receiving, may be invited to enter into an agreement for its protection, and that, in the event of his refusing to come to terms, the Collector may proceed to acquire it compulsorily, or, if there is an endowment, move the Courts to secure its proper application. It has been made clear that there is to be no resort to compulsory acquisition in the case of a monument used in connection with religious observances, or in any other case until the owner has had an opportunity of entering into an agreement of the kind indicated above; and it is expressly provided that a monument maintained by the Government under the proposed Act shall not be used for any purpose inconsistent with its character or with the purposes of its foundation, and that, so far as is compatible with the object in view, the public shall have access to it free of charge. By the fourth proviso to clause 11 it is laid down that, in assessing the value of a monument for the purposes of compulsory acquisition under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894), its archæological, artistic or historical merits shall not be taken into account. The object of the Government as purchaser being to preserve, at the public expense and for the public benefit, an ancient monument along with all its associations, it is considered that the value of those associations should not be paid for.

4. The second portion of the Bill deals with moveable objects of historical or artistic interest, and these may be divided into two classes. The first consists of arms, enamels, silver and copper vessels, Persian and Arabic manuscripts, and curios generally. These are for the most part portable and consequently difficult to trace; they are as a rule of artistic, rather than historic, interest; and it would be impracticable, even were it desirable, to prevent a dealer from selling, or a traveller from buying, them. But sculptural carvings, images, bas-reliefs, inscriptions and the like form a distinct class by themselves, in that their value depends upon their local connection. Such antiquities may, as in the case of those of Swat, be found outside the confines of India or in Native States, and these the legislature cannot reach directly; while, as regards British territory and under the existing law, it is impossible to go beyond the provisions of the Indian Treasure-trove Act, 1878 (VI of 1878). In these circumstances, it is proposed, by clause 18 of the Bill, to take power to prevent the removal from British India of any antiquities which it may be deemed desirable to retain in the country, and at the same time to prevent importation. By thus putting a stop to traffic in such articles, it is believed that it will be possible to protect against spoliation a number of interesting places situated without and beyond British territory. Clause 19 aims at providing for antiquities, such as sculptures and inscriptions, which belong to a particular place and ought, therefore, to be kept in situ or deposited in local museums. The removal of these it is proposed to enable the Local Government to prohibit by notification; and the clause also provides that, if the object is moveable, the owner may require the Government to purchase it outright, and that, if it is immoveable, the Government shall compensate the owner for any loss caused to him by the prohibition. Clause 20 deals with the compulsory purchase of such antiquities, if that is found to be necessary for their preservation and the owner is not unwilling, on personal or religious grounds, to part from them. In such cases it is proposed that the price to be paid should be assessed by the Collector, subject to a right of appeal to the Local Government; but it is for consideration whether the Land Acquisition Act of 1894 should be followed and a reference to the Courts allowed.

5. The third portion of the Bill deals with excavations, and gives power to make rules to prohibit or regulate such operations.

6. A general power to make rules is given by clause 22, and clause 23 is intended to protect acts done, or in good faith intended to be done, under the law which it is now proposed to enact.

Miscellaneous.

Indian Companies Act, 1882, not to apply.

22. The provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1882, shall not apply to societies registered under this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this measure is to provide the requisite legal basis for the establishment in India of Agricultural Banks, or—to use a more appropriate expression—of Co-operative Credit Societies. Such a scheme for improving the credit of the masses has for some time past been engaging the attention of the Government, the advantages likely to follow the provision of some means of obtaining capital, especially in connection with agricultural operations, otherwise than at usurious rates of interest having, indeed, long been recognized in this country. Legislation is called for not only in order to lay down the fundamental conditions which must be observed, but also with a view to giving such societies a corporate existence without resort to the elaborate provisions of the Companies Act; but it is thought that legislation should be confined within the narrowest possible limits. The Bill has, therefore, been drawn so as to deal only with those points which the Government consider to be essential, and its provisions have been expressed in simple and general terms, a wide rule-making power being reserved to Local Governments, so that what is felt to be of the nature of an experiment may be tried in each Province or part of a Province on such lines as seem to afford most promise of success. An explanation of the more important features of the draft will be found in the annexed notes on its clauses.

The 21st October, 1903. DENZIL IBBETSON.

Notes on Clauses.

Clause 3.—Much importance is attached to the appointment of a special officer in each Province, who should, as Registrar of Co-operative Societies, guide and control such societies, particularly in the early days of the movement. Gradually, no doubt, as experience is gained and the societies are able to stand alone, the fostering care of the Registrar will be less required, and eventually his duties will become for the most part purely official.

Clauses 5-8.—The main object is to encourage thrift and co-operation among persons of limited means, and it is not intended that the special facilities and concessions contemplated should be made available for the ordinary operations of capital. The Bill is conceived primarily in the interests of agriculturists, but it is recognized that societies may properly be started among other classes of small means in towns and large villages. While, therefore, it is proposed to allow urban societies to be promoted on a share basis with limited liability, for rural societies it has been decided to insist upon the principle of unlimited liability. The utilisation of combined credit for the benefit of individual agriculturists is the kind of co-operation which it is desired to encourage, and towards this end the measure is mainly directed. It seems essential that the main qualifications for admission to membership of a society, whether rural or urban, should be laid down by legislation, and it is thought that the most prominent qualification should be residence in the same neighbourhood, inasmuch as it is an essential principle that the lenders should have that accurate knowledge of the circumstances of the borrowers which can only thus be obtained. It is also important that members should be eligible for admission by election only so as to secure that mutual confidence upon which successful co-operation must depend.

Clause 8.—As it is desired to foster thrift and mutual co-operation, it is provided that loans shall be admissible to members only, save in the case of urban societies, when it is proposed to allow, subject to the sanction of the Registrar, advances to be made to rural societies in the same district. The question whether pawnbroking should be countenanced has been much discussed, and the conclusion embodied in clause 8 is that it should be prohibited except as regards advances by rural societies on the deposit of agricultural produce.

Clauses 9 and 10.—These clauses aim at strictly limiting the number and value of the shares held by a single individual, and rendering shares untransferable until they have been in the possession of the holder for a certain period. The object is to prevent the acquisition of a predominant interest in a society by speculators whose advantage it might be to wreck it or to use the facilities furnished by the measure to start banks for ends other than those which it is desired to promote.

Clause 11.—It is here provided that the interests of individual members in the funds of a society shall be exempt from liability to attachment by civil process. To deposits it has been decided that this exemption should not be extended.

Clause 12.—Facilities for the payment of what is due to a member on his death are here provided.

Clauses 13 and 14.—The proposal that a summary process for the recovery of loans should be secured in favour of societies has been discarded, and these clauses are confined to giving them a prior claim as against ordinary creditors on the crops grown, and cattle, etc., purchased with the aid of advances, and also a lien on shares, dividends and deposits.

Clause 15.—This provision will render official audit compulsory, and, it is believed, will give the outside public and the members confidence in the management. Even although a society may receive no financial assistance from the Government, yet it will obtain valuable privileges under the proposed Act, and it is but reasonable that it should at the same time be obliged to submit its accounts to some check, which must in this country take the form of an official audit.

Clauses 17 and 18.—These provisions as to the dissolution and liquidation of a society call for no special explanation.

Clause 19.—Power is here taken to grant by executive order certain exemptions in respect of income-tax, stamp-duties, and registration-fees. In provinces where there are no records-of-rights, the searching of registers kept under the Indian Registration Act, 1877 (III of 1877), is the only means of ascertaining the existence of encumbrances upon land; but the right to search free of charge is a privilege which might be used to obtain information required really for private purposes, and power has, therefore, been expressly taken to withdraw it in case of such abuse from any particular society.

Clause 20.—The Bill does not provide for the grant of financial assistance by the Government; but it may be necessary to afford such assistance, and the matter is left to be regulated by executive order. The power summarily to recover any advances made in this way, as also any other sums due to the Government, is reserved by clause 20.

Clause 21.—The object of the wide rule-making power here contemplated has already been adverted to.

Clause 22.—It is proposed, as has also been explained above, that duly registered Co-operative Credit Societies should not be subject to the provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1882 (VI of 1882).

Secretary to the Government of India.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE TOWN OF KURSEONG AS A HILL STATION AND HEALTH RESORT.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—(MUNICIPAL)

Darjeeling, the 29th October 1903.

RESOLUTION No 3013T—M

READ—

An address presented to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor on 23rd June 1903 by the Municipal Commissioners of Kurseong, and His Honour's reply thereto.

Read also—

A letter, dated 3rd September 1903, from the Executive Engineer, Darjeeling Division, to the Deputy Commissioner, Darjeeling, enclosing a rough plan and an approximate estimate, amounting to Rs. 19,240, for a new road at Kurseong from the Darjeeling Hill Cart Road below the Clarendon Hotel to the Matigarah-Kurseong Road near the police-station.

On the occasion of the Lieutenant-Governor's visit to Kurseong on the 23rd June 1903, the Commissioners of the Municipality presented an address in which they prayed that a substantial grant might be made from Provincial Funds to assist in the development of the town as a hill station and as a health resort. In support of their request they pointed to the already overcrowded condition of Darjeeling, and they urged that the change from the plains to Kurseong is not so trying as the change to Darjeeling, and that the climate of Kurseong is in many respects more suitable for invalids.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor is in entire sympathy with the object of the memorialists, namely, the development and improvement of Kurseong, so that it may become a second hill station for the Province. Darjeeling is greatly in need of relief from overcrowding; and the situation of Kurseong is eminently suitable, both because it is more easily accessible, and because its climate is better adapted than that of Darjeeling to many constitutions, especially to those of Indian gentlemen. The Lieutenant-Governor also has no doubt that if the town is properly encouraged, it has a great future before it. Its general improvement depends largely upon its expansion, and this again depends upon land being made available for building sites; and such sites are plentiful in and around Kurseong, although they cannot be utilized for building purposes until arrangements are made to give access to them. His Honour would therefore have been glad to consider favourably the prayer contained in the memorial, but he was compelled to point out that any grant from pulic funds must be for the purpose of carrying out some well-considered, urgent, and definite scheme, and that no such scheme had been submitted to him.

3. Such a scheme as is referred to in the preceding paragraph has now been prepared and laid before the Lieutenant-Governor. It is proposed that a new road should be constructed to the north and west of the bazar, running from near the police-station at the 22nd mile of the Matigarah-Kurseong Road, and striking the Darjeeling-Himalayan Cart Road below the Clarendon Hotel. The new road will pass through the Singell, Springside, and Monteviot Tea Estates. It will be 1¼ miles long and 9 feet wide, and will have a drystone drain on the inside, making a total width of 12 feet. The requisite amount of land measures in all 1 acre 5 roods 16 poles and 9 square yards, and the Lieutenant Governor understands that at any rate a portion of this land will be given as a free gift. In the next place one of the reasons why Kurseong has hitherto been slow in development is that it provides for visitors and resident few social attractions: it contains at present no adequate Club or similar institution such as a station of this character should possess, and this is a want which must be supplied. Therefore it is part of the scheme that the existing Club premises should be vacated, and that a new Club House should be erected in the Recreation Ground which lies close alongside the new road. For this purpose, at the suggestion of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Maharaja-Dhiraj Bahadur of Burdwan has undertaken to advance Rs. 20,000 to the members of the Club at a moderate rate of interest: but the Committee of the Club will be left to make their own approaches to the Club House and thence on to the Matigarah Road. The third great want of Kurseong is more land for building sites, and here again the Maharaja-Dhiraj Bahadur of Burdwan, at the instance of the Lieutenant-Governor, is willing to consider applications to lease building sites of which there are several on his property. It is hoped that other proprietors in the neighbourhood will follow his wise example. The proposed new road will meet all three of the wants above stated: it will connect both ends of the station, and will furnish an alternative route to that through the bazar, which is not free from danger; it will in itself be a great improvement to Kurseong, where there are at present very few walks for visitors; and by opening out a large number of new building sites it will give an opportunity to private enterprise to assist in carrying out the expansion of the town.

4. The rough estimate of the cost of making this road, which has been approved by the Superintending Engineer, Western Circle, amounts to Rs. 19,240. Of this sum Rs. 14,095 is for the actual work of construction, and the remainder is for compensation. The expenditure under the former head will probably be considerably reduced if the following proposal, which has received the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor, is adopted, namely, that the contract for road making should be given to the local planters on the understanding that they will execute the work at cost price, under the supervision of the Public Works Department, but that the bridges will be built by the officers of the Public Works Department themselves. On the other hand, however, the amount provided for compensation may prove insufficient, so that on the whole it is not improbable that the full amount set down in the estimate may be required.

5. After giving the matter his most careful consideration, the Lieutenant-Governor has approved of the proposed alignment of the new road, and is pleased to accord the necessary administrative sanction to the work. His Honour is further pleased, in view of the necessity which exists for the creation of a second hill station for the Province, and especially in consideration of the suitabitity of Kurseong for Indian invalids, to sanction a grant of Rs. 10,000 from the Provincial Revenues, during the current financial year, for the construction of the road in question. This grant will be supplemented by a contribution from the Darjeeling Improvement Fund, the amount of which will be decided according to the available balance of the Fund; but part of it may be given during the current year and part during next year. Moreover, Mr. Bourdillon hopes that the Agents of the Tea Companies concerned will, in view of the important objects to be achieved, feel disposed to contribute either by donations of money or by waiving or reducing their claims for compensation.

6. The above grant from the Provincial Revenues is, however, made subject to two conditions. The first of these is that the management of the scheme and the control of funds shall be vested in a Committee, to be called the Kurseong Improvement Committee, which shall for the present consist of the following gentlemen:—

1. The Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling ... } Ex-officio.
2. The Subdivisional Officer of Kurseong ... }
3. The Executive Engineer of the Darjeeling Division ... }
4. Raja Ban Behari Kapur, C.S.I. (of Burdwan).
5. A. H Wathen, Esq. (Chairman-Elect, Kurseong Municipality).
6. W. F. Kerr, Esq.

The second condition is that the Committee so appointed shall succeed in making such arrangements for the construction of the road and the payment of compensation as will enable the total cost to be covered by the total funds available.

7. A notice will be issued to the Club Committee to vacate their present premises, which are on land the property of Government, on the 1st July 1904, by which date the new Club House is expected to be ready, subject, however, to further extension of the period if its completion is unavoidably delayed. The details are matters to be settled locally, the Club Committee consulting, if necessary, the Improvement Committee and the Maharaja-Dhiraj Bahadur of Burdwan.

8. In conclusion the Lieutenant-Governor takes this opportunity of expressing his cordial thanks to the Maharaja of Burdwan and Messrs. Wathen and Kerr, whose generosity and earnest co-operation have permitted of the early inception of the scheme, and his earnest hope that with the material assistance now afforded by Government the station of Kurseong will enter upon a course of rapid and prosperous development.

ORDER.—Ordered that the Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.
